Meeting Minutes for August 20, 2015
CM Doyle Carter

Topic: The Jacksonville Equestrian Center

Location: City Council Office, Conference Room A

In Attendance: CM Carter, CM Crescembeni, CM Brosche, Angela Moyer (Budget Office), Trista Straits (Council Auditors), Phillip Peterson (Council Auditors), Heather Reber (Council Auditors), Terrance Freeman (ECA to CM Bowman) and Chiquita Moore (ECA to CM Newby)

Meeting Convened: 8:00 a.m.

- CM Carter's purpose in meeting with the Council Members was to present the history and the anticipated future of the Jacksonville Equestrian Center (JEC).
- He stated that his goal is to be able to fund the JEC over the next four years while phasing out the amount given by the city due to the JEC becoming self-supported.
- CM Crescembeni inquired about the funding for the JEC in the budget.
- Mr. Peterson explained the auditor's recommendation is to zero out the budget for the JEC and that there will be a contract amendment being proposed by CM Carter as a way to fund it.
- Ms. Moyer explained that the General Fund is paying the debt, vehicles, computers and the insurance on the building at the JEC.
- CM Carter's amendment will provide the 539k to the JEC from the Taye Brown Trust Fund until the year 18/19.
- The amendment will also allow the JEC to have control over an operating account but they will turn in monthly reports to the city.

Meeting Adjourned: 8:45 a.m.
