1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: We'll go ahead and 3 call the meeting to order, Jacksonville
4 Charter Revision Commission.

5 And why don't we, I guess, first, seems 6 like everybody fared well from the storm.

7 I'm Lindsey Brock. I would like to just 8 briefly take a moment of silence for our 9 friends in the Bahamas. I personally know
10 some families affected. I'm sure all of us
11 do from the Abacos, even some of the parts 12 of Puerto Rico got hit hard and still 13 recovering from that. So if we can just 14 have a brief moment of silence.

15 (Brief moment of silence.)

16 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: All right. Thank 17 you. Next item on the agenda is approval of 18 the minutes of the August 29 meeting.

19 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: If we can 20 wait until the next meeting, because I just 21 got them. I haven't reviewed them. If we 22 can wait until the next meeting to approve 23 them, that would be great.

24 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. That's fine.
25 There are several pages there. I got in and

1 was looking at them, going through them
2 myself. If you want time to review them,
3 that's fine. We can table that to the next 4 meeting.

5 Remarks from the Chair: Well, it looks
6 like what we thought was going to be a 7 rather filled meeting, I think, because of 8 the storm and different things, we now only 9 have one speaker, Mr. Weinstein. And 10 Mr. Weinstein will be coming to us at 9:30.
11 He had to attend another meeting. He came 12 in and checked with me, and I told him that 13 would be good.

14 Also -- there we go. Now, that's a 15 little better maybe. Folks can hear me.

16 Everyone please make sure your 17 microphone is on green so that it's good for 18 the recording.

19 I got a communication from Chris Hand, 20 who was going to be speaking to us on the 21 13th. He said that the books, because of 22 the hurricane, were delayed in their 23 delivery. They will be -- push the button
24 up front, and it should turn green.

25 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Thank you.

1 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: He said that they 2 should be here in time for the 13th. So 3 what he will be doing is delivering the 4 books. Again, that's the 50th Anniversary
5 Edition of the Quiet Revolution, A Quiet
6 Revolution, History of Consolidation of 7 Jacksonville. It has a section on proposed 8 Charter issues.

9 So he's going to deliver it to us on the 10 13th. We'll have an opportunity to read 11 through those parts. And then he will be 12 here on the 20th to speak to us at that and 13 answer any questions that we may have.

14 You also have in your packet the updated
15 Charter issues in there. So please continue 16 to look over those, if there are issues that 17 you would like to see added.

18 And so that we're making sure none of 19 the speaker requests are falling through the 20 cracks, if there is someone that you would 21 like to have come and speak to us, please,
22 if you have contact information, provide it.
23 But indicate if you're going to contact that 24 person or if you want staff or someone else, 25 so that you don't simply, you know, put that

1 name out there; and then there is an 2 assumption that you're going to be 3 contacting them; and then we don't end up 4 getting them here in time to speak.

5 So is everyone -- everyone got that?

6 Okay. While we are waiting for 7 Mr. Weinstein, we'll move on to updates from 8 Commissioners. Has anyone been meeting or 9 talking with anybody else outside of here 10 that you've gained some insight or some 11 issues? If you do, just maybe tilt your -- 12 Mr. Schellenberg.

13 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Just a
14 couple things. I think that -- I glanced at 15 the minutes. And one of the things that 16 caught me last meeting was that Ms. Baker 17 said that we should have more authority over 18 the independent authorities. And I tend to 19 disagree with her, because they're supposed 20 to be independent.

21 But I think that it's important to know
22 some of the background on the Vogtle issue 23 that we're now dealing with at JEA -- is 24 dealing with. And I'm sure others can add 25 to it, probably Frank Denton can probably be

1 even better at it.

2 But when this deal was struck back in 3 '08 -- '07, '08, by the board of JEA, they 4 wanted to diversify their power source. And 5 so they looked at two -- they looked at all
6 of it, but they looked at two specifically:
7 And one was nuclear and one was natural gas.

8 Now, everybody is complaining about the 9 Vogtle thing, so I'll address that 10 correctly -- right now. Vogtle -- there is 11 such a thing as Vogtle One and Two, and 12 they're functioning incredibly well. In 13 Jacksonville JEA made a deal with the 14 company to buy their power over a 20-year 15 period at whatever the cost would be for the 16 cost of -- whatever the cost would be of the 17 construction of the nuclear power plant.
18 Well, it went from like 8 to 10 to 15, now 19 it's around 21.

20 And they're going to be coming onboard.
21 And anybody considers -- and this is for 22 informational purposes, because I think that 23 we should know information. I'll be brief,
24 I'll try to be brief.

25 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. That was one

1 thing I was going to say. One of the things
2 I'm going to try and do, especially as we 3 get more speakers -- and I didn't start the 4 timer, but we'll do a five-minute --

5 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: It won't 6 take five minutes.

7 But that problem is a 20-year problem.
8 We have to buy power from them for 20 years.
9 So everybody says it's $2 billion. It's 10 spread over 20 years. So it's basically a 11 $100 million problem a year for the next 20 12 years, which is not substantial. But 13 everybody thinks that was the problem.

14 But back in '08 when they were building 15 the natural gas plants, the price of natural 16 gas was sky rocketing. And as a business -- 17 as a business, they were looking at it and 18 saying, oh, my gosh, we based natural gas on 19 a certain price, and we'll buy futures, 20 which they did. And those futures went on 21 for like five or six years.

22 But right after they did that deal,
23 fracking came onboard and the natural gas
24 prices came like this (indicating). So 25 everybody complains about the decisions that

1 were made back then, which were basically 2 good business decisions to diversify our 3 power source. But the biggest problems
4 right off the bat were actually the natural 5 gas plants, and the unbelievable cost of 6 natural gas exhumed. And then they turned 7 around and absolutely collapsed. And up 8 until, I think, '12 or '13 or '14, JEA was 9 paying tens of millions of dollars on 10 contracts that they had made to buy natural 11 gas at a substantially higher price.

12 So I think that as a group we should all 13 look at these things going forward and say,
14 yes, it appears that Vogtle seems to be a 15 bad decision, but at the time it wasn't.
16 And it's still not a problem if you
17 assume -- what our commitment is -- or JEA's 18 commitment is a 20-year commitment to buy
19 electricity from Vogtle Three and Four over 20 a period of 20 years. And it's not a 21 $2 billion problem. That's it.

22 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Well, is there
23 anything in the Charter?

24 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: No, but the 25 question was -- no. What I'm looking at is

1 one of the Commissioners said we should 2 oversee what's going on at the independent
3 authorities. And the word independent means
4 something. And it means independence, not 5 undue influence from the administration or 6 City Council. It's supposed to be 7 independent.

8 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. So you
9 disagree with that one?

10 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Yes.

11 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. Anybody else?
12 Yes, Ms. Lisska.

13 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Yes. Thank you,
14 Mr. Chairman.

15 I don't see any officials, and they 16 likely are on our list of possible speakers
17 and people here to advise. So I'm hopeful
18 that we will have some individuals
19 representing the JEA here. I mean, it's a 20 substantial part of the Charter and a lot to 21 review and understand.

22 And thank you for sharing your thoughts
23 this morning, Mr. Schellenberg.

24 So if we could -- and I'm not just 25 talking about their CEO; I'm talking about

1 people who sit on their board, former 2 members of the JEA.

3 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Well, and we did, in 4 fact, reach out to JEA. I received a letter 5 from Mr. Zahn respectfully declining our 6 request and --

7 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Oh, thank you for 8 that.

9 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: -- I thought that 10 letter had been circulated, but I will make 11 sure -- well, the lady to make sure with 12 just stepped out. But I'll make sure that 13 Carol Owens gets that letter circulated -- 14 oh, there she is. She's hiding.

15 Can we get that letter from Mr. Zahn, 16 where he declined our invitation?

17 MS. OWENS: Yes.

18 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: We can circulate
19 that around to everybody so you all see 20 that.

21 I'm sorry. Were you through?

22 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: I just said I'll 23 come up with a list of names related to the 24 JEA in that case. Thank you.

25 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. Perfect.

1 Thank you.

2 Mr. Denton.

3 COMMISSIONER DENTON: I'll just add onto 4 what Mr. Schellenberg said, that there is a 5 difference between the substance of the 6 decisions made by JEA and the structure of 7 JEA and its relationship to the political 8 leadership and to the Charter. And I think 9 the latter is what -- at least I'm one of 10 the people -- I can't find it on this list, 11 I'm sure it's there -- suggested that we 12 look at the relationship between the 13 independent authorities and Mayor, City
14 Council and the Charter. And certainly 15 didn't mean to suggest that we would revisit
16 some decisions by the board, because that, I 17 think, probably would not be part of the 18 charge of this Commission.

19 I was shocked to hear that Mr. Zahn
20 declined to come and talk to us.

21 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: That was the letter
22 I received.

23 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Maybe we should be 24 looking into the relationship in that case.

25 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And to follow up on

1 your point, Mr. Denton, that's exactly the 2 measure of caution that I have been trying 3 to make sure we follow, is that we are not 4 here to get involved in policymaking, policy 5 decisions, but to look at the structure, the 6 structure of our government and how can we 7 propose revisions to our Charter that will 8 make the government function more
9 efficiently, more transparently, be more
10 responsive to the citizens of Jacksonville.

11 Policy decisions that have been made are 12 policy decisions that have been made by the 13 electeds. And there are certain policy
14 decisions that are currently being debated
15 by the electeds. So that's what I'm trying 16 to keep us focussed on.

17 And just as I kind of had asked Mr.
18 Schellenberg, when we come up with ideas or 19 topics, what I will be doing is asking you
20 where do we fix that in the Charter, how do 21 we address that in the Charter. Because 22 that's what I want to -- I want to keep us 23 focussed on that primary task of what can we 24 do to make the revisions in there with the 25 Charter.

1 Anybody else?

2 Yes, Mr. Schellenberg.

3 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I want to 4 follow up with this. I'm appalled that 5 Aaron Zahn is not coming here. Is it
6 appropriate for the Committee as a whole, if 7 we agree, to send him a letter saying: We 8 strongly disagree with you. And this is 9 important for our CRC to understand what the 10 relationship is between JEA and the City.
11 And we'd greatly appreciate if you would 12 revisit the issue and find time to come and 13 see us.

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Now that I know that 15 everyone did not receive a copy of that 16 letter, I will follow up with him and report 17 back.

18 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I want to 19 make sure everybody feels the same way.
20 Maybe everybody doesn't feel the same way.

21 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I think there is a 22 consensus that we would all like to have the 23 opportunity to speak with him and to 24 understand the relationship in there with 25 JEA. So I think that's a pretty easy one to 1 kind of look around the room and get 2 consensus on that. So I will follow up with 3 him and see.

4 There is nothing that prevents us from 5 inviting the other board members -- or the 6 board members of JEA. And we will make sure 7 that we -- I'll make my note of that, to 8 reach out to them as well. In all candor,
9 I'm not sure if we sent letters to them. I 10 know that we did send them to all of the 11 heads of them.

12 Ms. Santiago.

13 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: I was just 14 wondering -- I don't see on this list -- 15 we're talking about JEA, but have we also 16 reached out to the other authorities as 17 well?

18 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes. We have 19 reached out to the other authorities. Many 20 of them simply said they had no issues. So 21 we are going to hear from the School Board.
22 We're going to have -- Dr. Green and Lori 23 Hershey will be here. We have -- what's our 24 current schedule? Right over here.

25 Okay. Yeah, we have Lori Hershey

1 scheduled. We have Jim Overton scheduled.
2 Sheriff Williams was going to be here today,
3 but he's unable to. We've had Jerry 4 Holland.

5 Like I said, the Port Authority, when I 6 reached out to them, they said that they 7 didn't have anything that they really wanted 8 us to address, but if we had a question or 9 something in relationship to them -- and 10 that's kind of what I would say is, if we 11 have something, that we say, hey, we would 12 like for you to come speak to us about X, Y, 13 Z.

14 I met with Lori Boyer. And she has, you
15 know, said that she would be more than happy
16 to come and speak to us. She did ask that I 17 provide a list of topics that we would like 18 for her to address. And, you know, of 19 course, I said, number one would be your 20 blueprint report that you did and some of 21 the specific items in there that relate to 22 the Charter, as well as the DIA, and in 23 reference to some of the topics that 24 Mr. Griggs had mentioned, how could we, if 25 we wanted to, replicate something like that

1 for what I'll just generally call the 2 northwest quadrant for economic development
3 in some of those regions that we've talked 4 about that it feels like may have been left 5 behind with a lot of the growth and 6 prosperity in Jacksonville.

7 Okay. So everybody has a copy of the 8 letter -- ah, Ms. Mills.

9 COMMISSIONER MILLS: Good morning.
10 Through the Chair, I just would like to ask
11 maybe we need to send the email back to JEA 12 to find out if they could come and speak on 13 the relationship with the City. Maybe they 14 feel the topic would be too broad or 15 maybe -- I don't know what the letter said
16 because we didn't get a copy of the letter.
17 So maybe if we could just, you know, ask him 18 to come in and speak on the relationships,
19 the relationship with the City, as opposed 20 to him, you know, thinking that he may be 21 attacked with different questions, and that 22 might scale him down to be in more agreeance 23 to come.

24 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Sure. And I will do 25 that. Hearing that that's really the will

1 of the Body, I will specifically reach out 2 to him and say that we would like to have an 3 opportunity to talk to you about 4 understanding how JEA and the City are 5 working together.

6 Mr. Griggs.

7 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: In reading his 8 letter, it almost looks like there was some 9 type of miscommunication, because this 10 letter doesn't -- the response doesn't 11 really say anything to what our request is.
12 I mean, this letter sort of gives us an 13 overview of what the JEA is currently 14 undertaking, which really has nothing to do 15 with why we request a presentation.

16 Do you think that there was some type of 17 miscommunication in what we were asking in 18 terms of what a presentation would be before 19 this Commission?

20 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Is it possible?
21 Yes. No one else seemed to have 22 misunderstood the invitation letter, because 23 it was the same letter that we sent out to 24 all of the electeds and the heads of the 25 independent agencies. So I will reach back

1 out to him and clarify the nature of our 2 request and say that a lot of folks here
3 really would like the opportunity to speak.

4 Yes, Ms. Lisska.

5 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Thank you.

6 Perhaps prior to someone from the JEA,
7 or numerous people coming here from the JEA,
8 to possibly answer questions if they don't 9 want to present, could we perhaps have a 10 staff member present -- go through that 11 section of the Charter with this Commission?
12 I mean, it's clearly one of the most 13 complicated sections of the Charter and not 14 simple to wade through. And I know, as much 15 as I may be persona non grata, the last 16 Commission, the one from 2009, suggested
17 that we did have review of the Charter, you
18 know, go through the Charter as a 19 Commission. But I would just ask for that 20 one portion of the Charter to perhaps be 21 reviewed with us. You know, and it's had a 22 lot of changes, additions and, you know, 23 updates.

24 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And that person
25 would likely be Ms. Johnston.

1 Can you -- are you suggesting we just 2 have her come here and walk us through it;
3 or would you like it in an email, kind of a 4 summarization; or how would you like to -- 5 because I think it's a valid point.

6 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: I mean, it's 7 monumental. I mean, and, you know, I'm sure
8 sentence after sentence, you know, am I
9 getting the clear understanding when I read 10 it, I'm not certain. I'm not certain that 11 attorneys always would get the clear
12 understanding. And perhaps parts of it are 13 debatable, but I don't know that --

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: If there is a comma
15 in the sentence, then it's debatable. That 16 was how someone gave me a crash course on 17 statutory interpretations.

18 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Well, there are 19 lots of commas, as I recall.

20 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: All right. Well,
21 yes, Ms. Johnston.

22 MS. JOHNSTON: Okay. I couldn't tell if 23 you were looking at Ms. Mills.

24 Sorry. We had technical difficulty with 25 this microphone.

1 So JEA does have a chief legal officer.
2 Ms. Rhode is an attorney with our office,
3 but she is housed with JEA. They also have 4 an additional transactional attorney, Miriam 5 Hill.

6 I could reach out to one of them.
7 Perhaps they would have a better knowledge
8 of the JEA Charter and the inner workings 9 than I. I would be happy to reach out to 10 them and see if they would be willing to 11 come and talk to the Commission.

12 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: That would be 13 excellent. I think that would address
14 Ms. Lisska's questions in there, because it
15 is a complicated piece of legislation, you 16 know, especially with the Charter and how 17 JEA relates in there. So I think that's a 18 very good suggestion, and thank you for 19 that.

20 And, in the interim, I will also, again, 21 reach out to -- well, perhaps after that, if 22 that seems to be -- after we get the 23 conversation with the chief legal counsel 24 and have a better understanding of the inner 25 workings of the Charter and how JEA

1 functions in with that, perhaps after that,
2 if we have additional questions, I can be 3 more focussed in my request to Mr. Zahn in 4 letting him know that, hey, we've gone 5 through, we've looked at this and we would 6 like to hear more about A, B, C, and those 7 kinds of things. Does that seem like a good 8 plan?

9 Okay. Anyone else?

10 Yes, Mr. Denton.

11 COMMISSIONER DENTON: If Mr. Zahn
12 continues to decline to meet with us, I 13 wonder -- you know, he's new in his job. I 14 wonder who might be more qualified and more 15 knowledgeable about the history and 16 organization of JEA that could come and meet 17 with us. I don't know if it's the chair of 18 the board or the previous CEO, but there are 19 others who may know more than Mr. Zahn. I'm 20 not diminishing Mr. Zahn, but there are 21 others who may have knowledge about it. And 22 what we need is the knowledge, not the 23 appearance, necessarily.

24 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. Anyone else?

25 Yes, Mr. Schellenberg.

1 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I can
2 appreciate -- no, I don't really appreciate 3 Aaron Zahn basically saying no. But the 4 fact is that they're very interconnected
5 with the City and what we do and how we get 6 our funding. They send $120 million to our 7 City in lieu of real estate taxes. So 8 they're very much involved in -- the City is 9 very dependent currently. And who knows 10 what's going to happen going forward with 11 selling or not selling JEA, but they are 12 very interconnected with the City.

13 And I find it amazing that he won't come
14 and talk about how the City and JEA work 15 together to -- for the benefit of the 16 people, not only the City of Jacksonville, 17 but storm water issues, that they've 18 committed $5 million -- $10 million a year
19 for the next couple of years to help us
20 connect neighborhoods to the water system.

21 To give you a heads-up, you know, you
22 have three options that I'm aware of, Walt
23 Bussells, Paul McElroy -- well, Jim 24 Dickinson and then Paul McElroy that were 25 previous heads of JEA that were there, that

1 would be helpful. Eric Green.

2 They are connected to us because of a
3 very bad deal that was made years and years
4 ago that we -- I can't remember the exact
5 number, but I think the City gives them 6 about $800,000 a year. And it might not be 7 enough to compete. And we need to figure it 8 out, because that's a big portion of the 9 economic activity of Jacksonville. We 10 should know how it connects to City of 11 Jacksonville and the Charter, ultimately.

12 On the airport, that is a new guy. I 13 can't remember. I think it's VanLoh. They 14 actually -- there was an article recently in 15 the paper. Their economic impact, they 16 said, is $8 billion to Jacksonville, the 17 JEA. And so I think that although we are -- 18 and Michael Weinstein might be -- have all 19 this information. But they're very 20 connected and they own a lot of real estate.
21 And they're leasing real estate to their 22 property, which we don't get any money. It
23 goes directly to the City. And they don't 24 contribute to anything back to us because 25 it's against the FAA rules.

1 And JTA, Nat Ford is unbelievably
2 knowledgeable, not only about
3 transportation, because he was at Atlanta
4 and he was also in San Francisco when Uber
5 really got started. And he will give us
6 great insight about what he thinks is going 7 to go forward with transportation for the 8 City of Jacksonville. And the other thing 9 is that we have a loop option gas tax that 10 they are very involved in with the City.

11 So there are a lot of things going on 12 between us and these independent authorities 13 that I think that we should have a better 14 picture about how they're working with the 15 City going forward. And that has everything
16 to do with the Charter and our relationship 17 to every one of these independent 18 authorities.

19 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And, again, with 20 regards to Mr. Zahn, he's the one -- he has 21 given me a specific response.

22 Just from the nature of the 23 relationships with the folks at the Port, I 24 had telephone conversations. And their 25 response was they did not have anything that

1 they wanted to address with the Charter
2 Revision Commission.

3 And I don't presume any ill intent by 4 Mr. Zahn in his declination, because it may 5 be that it was his view that he did not have 6 anything that he felt JEA needed to address
7 to the Charter Revision Commission.

8 To the extent that we have questions -- 9 and I would ask that you please send those 10 to Carol Owens. And she can forward that 11 information to me so that I can perhaps go
12 back and refine our request saying: Okay.
13 Thank you. You don't have any issues.
14 We've got some questions. And we would like 15 to have somebody come and speak to us on 16 those.

17 So I want to take a break right now to 18 recognize Mr. Weinstein, who has graciously 19 agreed to come in here and chat with us.

20 Good morning, Mr. Weinstein.

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Good morning. Are you
22 ready for me?

23 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes, sir.

24 MR. WEINSTEIN: Is this on?

25 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes, sir. Give

1 officially your name and address.

2 Is the green light on? Yes, if the 3 green light is on, it's on.

4 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: You've 5 forgotten already?

6 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Is it not turned on 7 on the back?

8 MR. WEINSTEIN: Now it is.

9 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: You have to hit that 10 button. Bingo.

11 MR. WEINSTEIN: Funny, I've got like 12 four topics, one of which is independent 13 authorities, which I think you were sort of 14 talking about a little bit as I walked in 15 here.

16 So format is just for me to speak, 17 interact with questions?

18 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.
19 Anything you can kind of give us, just 20 general background, your experience and what 21 you've seen.

22 MR. WEINSTEIN: A little bit about me -- 23 do you want a little bit about me, or why 24 I'm here?

25 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes, sir.

1 MR. WEINSTEIN: I was just walking down
2 the street and somebody asked me to fill in,
3 somebody wasn't coming.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: It almost was that,
5 actually, ran into you in the Council
6 Chambers.

7 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, I'm Mike
8 Weinstein. And I've been unbelievably
9 blessed to be in Jacksonville. I came here 10 in '75 and never left, came here to work for 11 Ed Austin.

12 I came here originally to be the 13 executive director of the State Attorney's 14 Office for Ed Austin, which I did for 12
15 years. My background was in criminal
16 justice/law enforcement, a master's degree
17 and a doctoral program in criminology.

18 And after 12 years of doing that, I 19 decided to get a law degree and commuted for 20 two and a half years, worked part-time here
21 in Jacksonville, commuted two and a half
22 years to Gainesville and got a law degree
23 just in time for Ed Austin to become Mayor.

24 So I came over with him as his Chief of 25 Staff. Delaney came over as General

1 Counsel. A whole bunch of us came over,
2 General Counsel's Office.

3 I committed to stay a year. I stayed a
4 year and then went out in private practice.
5 And then Ed Austin lost to -- the CFO to the 6 City came to the firm I was in and asked me
7 to come back and be CFO. So I was CFO for 8 Ed Austin. John Delaney becomes Mayor. I
9 was CFO for Delaney.

10 And then we created our Economic 11 Development Commission, which I headed up.
12 And then did the Jaguar lease. And went to 13 Chicago with Wayne Weaver when we got the 14 team.

15 And then I was asked to do the Superbowl
16 application. So I headed up our Superbowl
17 application, presented it to the 32 NFL 18 owners. And we got Superbowl. And I became 19 president of Superbowl. And had to leave 20 City government at that time because 21 Superbowl entity had to be private. So I've 22 been very blessed in that regard.

23 I spent years running Take Stock in 24 Children statewide, running Volunteers in 25 Medicine. House member, became a house --

1 Tallahassee state house member for four 2 years.

3 And then went back with Angela Corey.
4 When she became state attorney, I went back
5 in as a prosecutor. Prosecuted for a while.

6 And then retired for the third time.
7 And Lenny Curry asked me to come back as his 8 CFO and basically deal with the pension
9 issue. And I did that.

10 And then this past November retired
11 again. And working a little bit part-time 12 as a consultant, but definitely not working 13 full-time.

14 So I'm here basically because I've been 15 a customer of the City as the Executive 16 Director of the State Attorney's Office.
17 I've been a client of the General Counsel's 18 office, and as a legislator, received what 19 the City needed out of Tallahassee and 20 wanted out of Tallahassee, which starts me 21 in the independent authorities.

22 One of the takeaways I had from being in 23 the legislature was that we would be visited 24 by each of the independent authorities with 25 their goals and desires and what have you.

1 And it always struck me that they were 2 individual, individualized to the 3 independent authorities and not really City.
4 And we had the responsibility to try to 5 figure out which of these different entities
6 is the most important.

7 And one of the things that I think we 8 should do as a community -- and I was a
9 board of trustee member of Florida Community 10 College. And I was really impressed with 11 one of the things they did in their budget 12 structure, where when they built their 13 budget, they had to have each department
14 literally, through their line items, 15 illustrate how that budget worked towards 16 the overall university goals, how they were 17 in line.

18 And I've always said that to different
19 people, that it was very impressive to me.
20 And I think that we as a community need 21 city-wide goals that are illustrated within 22 each of the independent authorities that 23 they're also helping in those city-wide 24 goals, instead of it being totally isolated 25 with their own goals and objectives.

1 I think that structurally they're 2 independent, but they're still owned,
3 basically, and operated for the benefit of 4 the community. And there is not enough of a 5 unification.

6 And if graduating more children out of 7 high school or dealing with the crime
8 problem or dealing with flooding, I think 9 that in some way each of the independent 10 authorities have to be vested in that.

11 And when you go to Tallahassee and when 12 you go to Washington, the top priorities of 13 the cities -- of the city should be the top 14 priority of everybody so we're not competing 15 against each other.

16 And you'll see that in my talk that 17 that's sort of a theme where you give -- the 18 entities and the individuals and the 19 departments give up a little bit of their 20 own objective for the bigger objective of 21 the City.

22 And I think the independent authorities 23 should be looked at more as a part of the 24 city than they are. And I'm not criticizing 25 them, that's how it's been.

1 I also advocated each time I came into 2 city government that the chairman of the 3 board and the executive director of the 4 independent authorities should meet with the 5 President of the Council and the Mayor
6 routinely. And each independent authority
7 should hear what the other independent 8 authorities are up to, just, again, to make 9 it more of a subsidiary than an isolated 10 company, because they really are 11 subsidiaries. That was one of my topics.

12 The other, second one, is central 13 services. And that's where I was a customer
14 in the State Attorney's Office, or a 15 customer to the IT department, customer to 16 fleet.

17 There are -- what happens in government 18 here and has happened over time is that the 19 individual customers start believing they 20 can get better service for the product, 21 whether it be software, computers, fleet,
22 whatever, outside and not use the general
23 services.

24 And you will have seen over the decades
25 how it's been spread out. All procurement

1 used to be done by all the individual groups
2 through the City. All the fleet, you know, 3 we have about 3,200 vehicles. I was in 4 charge of IT, in charge of fleet as CFO.

5 They're huge businesses, but each
6 individual -- Sheriff's Office is a perfect 7 example. They lobbied to go out on their 8 own with their software and what have you.
9 So what happens, all of a sudden their 10 software doesn't communicate with the City
11 software; they're done differently.

12 Everybody tries to get out on their own 13 and it's understandable, because, again, the 14 priorities. When we look at fleet -- and we 15 spent about $28 million a year replenishing
16 our fleet in the City of Jacksonville. So 17 we look at all the different vehicles, how 18 old they are, what the maintenance costs are 19 on them, how many miles they have. And we 20 evaluate them, but we always give a higher
21 priority to public safety. They get a
22 different weight when we do the evaluation.

23 So you'll have in public works and 24 parks, they'll wait a little longer to 25 replace. IT also, Sam Mousa and I would

1 meet once a month with the head of IT, and 2 we would go over all the different programs 3 at all the different customers, all the 4 different agencies, all the different
5 departments, all the different 6 constitutional officers, what they wanted to 7 get done. And we'd prioritize, because we 8 can't do them all.

9 When we first came into office,
10 replacing the Brown administration, there 11 were well over 300 pending programs to be 12 worked on, which was ridiculous. We got it 13 down into the low hundreds by weaning them
14 and doing away with them.

15 But, again, there is a priority system.
16 When you're in public works and you want 17 software to be done to make you more
18 efficient, which obviously will make you
19 more efficient, but you also have in there 20 JFRD that's going to enhance the response
21 time, we do the JFRD budget software first.
22 So public works, as a customer, gets 23 annoyed.

24 So when the customers are your Tax
25 Collector and your Sheriff and the School

1 Board and everybody else, they tend to go --
2 they want to go their own way. And over 3 time, politically, they've gotten 4 permission. And we have a lot of services,
5 whether they be IT, fleet, or procurement, 6 that are being done outside the central 7 services.

8 And, again, it's understandable, because 9 they're getting it done quicker and better.
10 But it's weakening the City as a whole.
11 Again, that obvious you got to give up a 12 little for the benefit of the whole.

13 And it's a conflict, it's always a 14 conflict. Don't know how to solve it. It's 15 the glue that keeps it going. It's part of 16 the rationale of consolidation. But it's a 17 problem internally when customers go to the 18 Mayor or the Council and complain that they 19 want to go their own way. And it's easy for 20 them to be allowed to, but it weakens the 21 central service system.

22 So we'll continue to talk about internal 23 stuff.

24 Just briefly, externally, from the 25 outside community and services we provide,

1 consolidation has been a godsend. We are 2 terrifically -- as inefficient as people may 3 think government is, and we are -- we are so
4 much more effective dealing with companies
5 coming in, dealing with permitting, dealing 6 with the things that need to be done from 7 the outside.

8 Consolidation has saved us a tremendous 9 amount of money and provided a much better
10 service to the outside. The stresses come 11 internally, because, again, everybody is 12 part of a bigger organization and the bigger 13 organization goals sometimes take priority
14 over the individuals.

15 The last two topics are the General
16 Counsel's Office and sort of the power
17 division between the Council and the Mayor's 18 Office.

19 On the General Counsel -- and I know
20 that periodically and right now there is a 21 tremendous amount of articles being written 22 and discussions about the power of the 23 General Counsel's Office and how it relates 24 to the independent authorities, how it 25 relates to their clients.

1 And looking at it from 30,000 feet, the 2 General Counsel's Office is the glue that 3 holds together consolidation. You can't 4 have pieces of our government suing each
5 other and effectively have a consolidated
6 government.

7 It's really going to be impossible if we 8 don't have a General Counsel's office with 9 the power and authority that they currently 10 have.

11 Now, how that power and authority is 12 utilized is the rub. And over time we've 13 had many General Counsels, and some get 14 closer to a particular client than others.
15 That just goes with people and relationships
16 and what have you.

17 It's worked, but it's worked, again, to 18 the frustration of some of the clients and 19 some of the citizenry that feel that it's 20 not being done in a fair way.

21 I do have my own thoughts about trying 22 to lessen that problem. And it would 23 require a different structure within the 24 General Counsel's Office.

25 Right now, basically, the different

1 clients, the major clients, have assigned 2 Assistant General Counsels, someone to the 3 School Board, someone to JTA, someone to 4 JPA, someone to JEA.

5 If you really wanted to look at trying 6 to build in the system a way to lessen the 7 possibility of General Counsels getting too
8 close to one client or another so it appears 9 to be unfair, although it may be as fair as 10 can be, you can structure it a little 11 differently, and literally have the 12 assistants assigned the way they are and 13 also have an assigned assistant to the 14 Mayor's Office, just like you do to JEA, the 15 Council and everyone else.

16 And the General Counsel person be looked 17 at more as an appellate court would be 18 looked at, where they -- that person, the 19 major responsibility of that person is to 20 listen to the arguments of the different 21 Assistant State Attorneys representing 22 different clients and come to a decision.

23 The first pushback against that is that 24 you want a General Counsel that really knows 25 all about government and what have you. But

1 if you think about judges, judges take 2 cases, all kinds of cases, many of which 3 they don't have any real understanding 4 about. Their responsibility is to listen to 5 the arguments from the different sides,
6 study the law, and make a decision.

7 If we structured it so the General
8 Counsel person is more in that role -- and 9 the way you do that is basically they're 10 appointed for two years. They don't have it 11 as a career. They don't stay long. They 12 come in for two years, and they're basically 13 there to resolve the problems within the 14 clients.

15 It's kind of controversial. It would be 16 different. The pushback, again, is, well, 17 they won't be an expert necessarily in 18 government. But you don't have to be. You 19 don't have to be. If that person has the 20 authority to make binding decisions, which 21 they do and they need to have that, they 22 need to be somebody that everybody feels is 23 relatively open and fair.

24 Anyhow, that's not an exact, but it sort 25 of begins to have people thinking about not

1 doing away or changing because the General
2 Counsel's Office is critical to consolidated
3 government. But trying to deal with the 4 periodic problem that comes up when you have 5 two clients that are looking at going
6 different ways and always asking the guy
7 outside, lawyers always asking -- and you
8 have to go to the General Counsel to get 9 permission to get an outside lawyer. So the 10 General Counsel's position is hugely 11 powerful, huge.

12 And maybe you look at it in a different
13 way.

14 My last topic is the occasional 15 discussion about the division of power. We 16 are a strong mayor government. There is no 17 question about it. And it works. It's 18 efficient and it works. You get a lot of 19 griping sometimes from the Council, but 20 there are things that are built into the 21 system that really doesn't allow the Council
22 to be more than it is. And what it is more 23 than anything else is a reactive entity to 24 what comes.

25 And to give you an example, and I've

1 said it to others and it may have been 2 presented, you know, when I was in the 3 house, I remember sitting down with Governor 4 Scott when he first got elected. And he 5 said that in February, his first time in, in 6 February I'm going to present my budget, and 7 you'll see all my priorities. We were 8 sitting in an airport somewhere. And I 9 said, well, you're going to present it in 10 February, and we're going to put it aside 11 and not look at it again. And he didn't 12 understand that.

13 And the way Tallahassee works is like
14 Washington, the house builds their own
15 budget, the senate builds their own budget.
16 And at the end the senate and the house get 17 together and they determine how to make the 18 differences go away.

19 Basically, you have a house budget and 20 you have a senate budget. And all the line 21 items that are the same, they're not 22 discussed again. The line items that are 23 different, you'll have a conferee committee, 24 a budget conferee committee, try to resolve 25 the differences in those line items. And

1 they'll resolve many of them.

2 Those that still aren't resolved go to 3 the chairmen of those committees to try to 4 resolve it. And at the end, if any of them 5 aren't resolved, they go to the speaker of 6 the house and the president of the senate,
7 and they resolve the differences. Governor 8 is not involved.

9 We don't have that here. And I'm not 10 suggesting we have that here, but that 11 builds in a structure that makes the Council 12 reactive.

13 They don't have the resources to build 14 their own budget. They have auditors, but 15 auditors look at history. Auditors aren't 16 budget creators. They don't have the staff.
17 And it would require a huge staff to do what 18 the executive branch does in creating a 19 budget.

20 So that works -- that defines and keeps 21 the structure the way it is.

22 Also, and I think you've heard talk
23 about this, the timing of our election.
24 When the ten new -- at least ten, if not 25 nine, at least nine or ten new Council

1 Members come in, they have no ability to 2 deal with the budget that they've been 3 handed in a week. And that builds in sort 4 of the theme and the expectation and the 5 behavior going on to the next three years of 6 budget. They assume they're going to get a
7 budget. And they work around the tangents,
8 they work around the perimeters. So that is 9 another embedded in the structure element 10 that keeps it the way it is.

11 And third is the way we do elections.
12 I've told a couple of Council Presidents 13 that to get elected like in May that come in 14 in July and tell them that, if you have 15 something you're trying to accomplish, you 16 have to have the legislation done and 17 introduced your first day, because you don't 18 have very -- you have six months, seven 19 months tops to influence what's happening, 20 because after six or seven months they're 21 already talking about who is coming next.
22 And it takes a while to get any legislation
23 through here.

24 So the idea that you become president, 25 it changes your life dramatically, because

1 you're asked to be everywhere and to speak
2 everywhere and you have authority. But to 3 implement a proactive strategy as far as 4 impacting the community, almost impossible
5 to do. Almost impossible to do.

6 So as the debate goes about, you know,
7 one mayor is too powerful, not too powerful,
8 what have you, it's embedded in the system, 9 in the strong mayor government that we have 10 to be the way it is. And it would take 11 monumental changes to change that.

12 And I just sort of give you sort of a 13 thumbnail of what -- from my view in 14 watching it happen over 40 years from 15 different perspectives. And I was a student 16 of government from the beginning, my 17 undergraduate was in political science. So 18 I've always been sort of a student of 19 government.

20 And we have a great one. The flaws that 21 we have, still we're about the best. And 22 that's why you see counties all over the 23 country trying to get to be consolidated.
24 There are only a few of us because of the 25 uphill battle to give away.

1 There's a reason why we have 19 Council
2 Members. It was because the County and the 3 City didn't want to lose any of their 4 positions. So instead of having 7 members
5 like a normal, they just absorbed both 6 entities and now we have 19.

7 And they're hard because of the Sunshine
8 Laws. Not anything against the Sunshine
9 Laws, it just makes it very hard, again, to 10 make things happen when you can't talk to 11 more than one of them at a time. And then 12 they can't talk to each other. And what you 13 say in public is possibly and probably 14 different than what you'd say in a private 15 conversation, but you can't have private 16 conversations.

17 So that's where we are. And we're 18 blessed to be there as a community. But we 19 do have some flaws that maybe we can chip
20 away at. But I certainly wouldn't advise 21 any major changes in our structure. And 22 that's more than I wanted to say.

23 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. I think
24 Mr. Schellenberg was first.

25 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: First of

1 all, Michael, I can't thank you enough.
2 First of all, you have been, hopefully, a
3 friend for the last eight years. And to see 4 how you operate both as a constituent, but 5 also your knowledge about what's going on, I 6 greatly appreciate it.

7 Help me out, because I actually took the 8 idea, I mentioned it last time, that Jim 9 Bailey who used to do the financial daily
10 report, he wrote an editorial saying 11 basically what you said about the 12 independent authorities at colleges and 13 things like that getting together.

14 So I wrote a resolution and basically
15 said it was a council of leaders. And I 16 included the independent authorities, the 17 DIA, a variety of people.

18 And this was in '13, when Brown was 19 there. And nothing happened to it. And 20 nothing is happening in the current 21 administration. And I believe that's the 22 way to go, making sure that everybody works
23 together to move forward. Now --

24 MR. WEINSTEIN: And there is a way to do 25 that, because all of them bring their budget

1 to City Council. And they should indicate
2 in their budgets how they are working 3 towards not only their own goals, but the 4 City's goals as a whole.

5 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: But wouldn't 6 it be better -- along the lines of the -- 7 first of all, the independent authorities do
8 get together talking among themselves. I
9 understand the colleges all get together, 10 the presidents of the colleges discuss what 11 they're doing.

12 But as a leader of the City, the Mayor
13 can bring all of them together on a 14 quarterly basis so they all know what 15 they're doing together to find out if 16 they're all working for the benefit of 17 Jacksonville going forward. So how do you 18 make that happen? Not just once a year for 19 the budget, but ongoing, because things 20 happen all the time.

21 I'm not saying -- maybe quarterly, maybe 22 twice a year, get together and find out how 23 we're all -- what they're doing and how 24 everybody can make two and two equal six,
25 because that's why the independents do it,

1 that's why the colleges do it.

2 MR. WEINSTEIN: Making it happen is 3 hard. I mean, you can require meetings and 4 what have you, but making it more than a dog 5 and pony show as to what each of them are 6 doing is up to the individual people that 7 are in that meeting.

8 But, again, I think from the top down, 9 if the community accepted the idea that we 10 develop, you know, like a five-year plan
11 where we have real goals set out and you 12 require -- and you do it through the budget, 13 because that's the only time you really have 14 power over them. And you require it to be 15 illustrated that everybody, the departments, 16 the agencies, the independent authorities,
17 everybody has in their objective not only 18 their own personal ones, but city-wide ones 19 as well.

20 But it would take a change in culture.
21 I mean, you can't just do it by dictating it
22 out of an ordinance. It's going to take a 23 change in culture from the top down. But 24 it's worth trying, because we have such 25 assets we spend.

1 You know, I always remark when the paper
2 puts out, you know, we have a $1.2 billion
3 budget, we have over a $6 billion budget
4 when you look at the community as a whole.
5 And so there is tremendous assets within 6 this community to tackle some of the major 7 problems we have if everybody is sort of,
8 again, not giving up their own roles, but 9 just adding a goal or two that weren't their 10 own, but they're the City's.

11 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I have other 12 questions, but I'll pass right now. Thank 13 you.

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: All right.
15 Mr. Griggs, I think you were next.

16 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: Thank you,
17 Michael. Pleasure seeing you here and great 18 working with you over the years.

19 Part of my first question is along the 20 lines of what Mr. Schellenberg said, and I'm 21 thinking, like you mentioned a few minutes
22 ago about strategic planning from the top
23 down, wouldn't it be easier if that effort 24 was led from the top to say, you know, this 25 is what we believe are the most important

1 priorities of our community? If we sort of 2 looked at it strategically over a three-, 3 maybe five-year period, and these are the 4 areas we would like to have addressed, you 5 know, between your role between all these 6 independent authorities. And maybe perhaps 7 they would see that it is a priority for 8 them to play on a regular basis and report
9 back and be held accountable for the things 10 they have -- the role they play with the 11 strategic plan. And if we do that, then 12 more people from the public can have a role 13 in what that strategic planning is all 14 about.

15 Do you think that would -- this 16 hasn't really got a whole lot to do with the 17 frame work of the Charter, but just speaking 18 in terms of how do you get these people to 19 collaborate more.

20 MR. WEINSTEIN: Those of you that have 21 been around a while may remember with Ed
22 Austin we did an economic development -- I 23 can't remember the exact name of it, but we 24 had everybody -- we met at the Prime Osborn 25 over a day or two, we broke up into groups.

1 The community, everybody was invited. We 2 provided lunch. And we ended up coming up 3 with economic development goals out of that.

4 But, yeah, I believe that, again, it's 5 worth the try to implement something that 6 permeates the entire community. And it only 7 will work if it's forced from -- I mean, you 8 can get the whole community to come up with 9 the ideas, but it has to be forced from the 10 top down with -- through the power of the 11 purse. I mean, that's the only way you can 12 do it.

13 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: Thank you for 14 that. So whatever happened to JEDC?

15 MR. WEINSTEIN: To what?

16 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: JEDC.

17 MR. WEINSTEIN: JEDC, for those of you 18 that weren't here, we consolidated all the 19 economic development entities within the 20 community, sports, international, Cecil 21 Field, Jacksonville Beach, all of the 22 economic, the Downtown Development into one
23 entity. And when I was CFO, I also headed 24 that up as we started it and then became the 25 first executive director of it.

1 It was basically made up of 16 different 2 entities that was responsible. Because we 3 had -- competing against each other we had 4 different geographic areas trying to get 5 this call center in or this manufacturing 6 in, competing against another area. And we 7 were competing for economic development 8 dollars. So we wanted to put it all under 9 one umbrella.

10 An administration came in, Austin.
11 Delaney had it. And I don't know if Peyton 12 got rid of it or whether it was Brown, but 13 somebody came in and blew it up, and 14 everybody went their own way.

15 A lot of it was about downtown. Having 16 it include the Downtown Development
17 Authority, which is what it was then, was 18 the most controversial piece of it, because 19 downtown has such a large and legitimate 20 support group that they felt it needed to be 21 separate. And I think maybe when they made 22 DIA, they separated the economic 23 development. Sports went their own way, 24 international went their own way, everybody
25 went their own way.

1 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: And so thank you
2 for that. I'd like to talk a little bit
3 about priorities, because you've seen a lot 4 over the years. And one of the 5 conversations we've been having is about 6 priorities throughout the community from 7 consolidation forward.

8 In your time, have you seen -- what have 9 you seen in terms of the City's general 10 priorities for funding, for economic 11 development funding, or just maybe public
12 safety funding, where have those priorities
13 lied? Because one of the conversations 14 we're having is communities that have been 15 left behind traditionally as it relates to 16 consolidation.

17 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, in different 18 categories, as far as spending money, and 19 one of the things we need to do is get rid 20 of the criticism that consolidation left
21 certain segments behind. If for some reason 22 the City comes in to some resources, they've 23 got to deal with that and get that behind 24 us. And that means going in with 25 infrastructure in areas that need

1 infrastructure, that were promised
2 infrastructure in the '60s, you know, '68
3 when they did consolidation.

4 But as far as social, you know, again, I
5 was president of Take Stock in Children. I 6 had staff in all 67 counties throughout the 7 state. And my position was that you could 8 provide dollars to the different ills of 9 society, whether it's lack of education, 10 whether it's law enforcement, whether it's 11 affordable housing, whether it's all these 12 things. And you could possibly help in 13 those. But there is only one element of our 14 social problems that impact all of the ills, 15 and that's education. That's education.

16 If I had a priority, it would always be 17 in helping in education so that they can get 18 out of poverty and they can get to where 19 they're not looking to the streets and what 20 have you. I mean, I think that's the only 21 one that helps all the different ills.

22 But the immediate ills, you know, law
23 enforcement, it's a top priority of mine, 24 public safety always has been. That's an 25 immediate issue -- it is a silent needs.

1 But in the long run -- when I was a student 2 in criminology, the crime rates, the most 3 influential issue for crime rates is the 4 size of the population from about 16 to 28.
5 As that population grew, crime rate grew.
6 As that population went down, crime rate 7 went down.

8 But that's a structural change, but the 9 most influential individual change, the way
10 you most likely know how a child will come 11 out is the education level of the mother, 12 strongest variable, strongest variable.

13 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: I got one more
14 question. Actually, it's more like a 15 statement. The people who I've been talking 16 within the community, I kind of ask
17 questions and try to get input about my role 18 here, have said to me that this City over 19 the years has found it more important to 20 invest in flat pieces of property along the 21 outskirts of town, building up areas of town 22 versus investing in those areas that have 23 been in the most need.

24 And so I've taken that information and 25 tried to do my own research. And study

1 after study that I've read -- and,
2 Mr. Chairman I'm going to provide a couple 3 for you -- have said the more you invest in 4 communities, the more you eradicate those 5 issues that are of concern, whether it's 6 education, economic development, housing.
7 All the evidence says that you invest in 8 those communities, you get better outcomes, 9 instead of investing along the outskirts of 10 town or other areas of town that may have, 11 quote, economic development problems.

12 MR. WEINSTEIN: It's always amazing when 13 we build these roads way out there and then 14 complain about traffic.

15 When I first came here -- I'm from New 16 Jersey. I came here and my eyes were open 17 to an issue in the South that I didn't 18 understand or see coming from the North.
19 And I remember many, many, many years ago a 20 pastor of mine talked to me about what I 21 felt the needs of the City, what could they 22 do as a church for the City. And I said to 23 him that, from my perspective, the biggest 24 problem the City has is race relations. And 25 I have been here 40 years and I wouldn't

1 change that opinion. And all you have to do
2 is be at City Council one night and listen
3 to people that come up and speak at City
4 Council.

5 Which takes me back to the issue of the 6 consolidation and making sure that we can't 7 be criticized any longer for not doing what 8 we said we would do to get consolidation
9 passed, yeah.

10 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: Should it be a 11 priority, that investment?

12 MR. WEINSTEIN: It should be a priority
13 of every person, as well as government.

14 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: Thank you,
15 Mr. Chair.

16 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: All right. I
17 believe, Mr. Denton.

18 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Thank you.

19 And thank you, Mr. Weinstein, for coming 20 in and meeting with us. I have three 21 questions, if I might. The first --

22 MR. WEINSTEIN: Is this off the record?

23 COMMISSIONER DENTON: I think it's on 24 the record. We have had a few 25 off-the-record conversations.

1 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yes, we have.

2 COMMISSIONER DENTON: But following up
3 on the topic Mr. Griggs brought up, do you 4 think, given that the DIA has been very 5 effective in downtown development, I think,
6 and has focussed resources and agencies and 7 information toward downtown development, do 8 you think, given your vast background in 9 local government, that the creation of 10 something like a DIA for the poor
11 neighborhoods that we just talked about 12 might help not just funnel money into it, 13 because it's not just money that we need,
14 it's information, expertise, priorities,
15 community involvement and on down the line,
16 would such an agency help make that happen?

17 MR. WEINSTEIN: I don't know. I would 18 have to really think about that. An agency
19 without resources, you know, won't do 20 anything.

21 You know, we have these tax increment
22 districts all around town, which I as CFO
23 was opposed to, because it takes about 24 $30 million out of the City budget and 25 isolates them. In going back to -- and the

1 reason I didn't like it goes back to my 2 whole theme. You know, you have 3 Jacksonville -- you have all these different
4 tax increment districts, which lock in money 5 for that tax increment district, which is 6 nice for that tax increment district, but 7 that money can't be used for the top
8 priority of the City, which is a perfect
9 example of what I was talking about before.
10 You know, maybe all that money doesn't need 11 to go into this.

12 What's happened by the airport, the 13 airport tax increment district in the 14 shopping center up there has been 15 phenomenally successful, tremendously
16 successful. It still exists and still gets 17 multiple millions of dollars every year that 18 has to be spent there, has to be. Well, 19 those millions of dollars could very well be 20 used in different areas that need it more.

21 So I'm not a fan of isolating, but -- so
22 I don't suggest that we create another
23 separate entity. It just needs to be a top 24 priority of the community and be dealt with.
25 And it is.

1 I mean, this Mayor has done a lot and 2 continues to do a lot in the budget each and 3 every year with septic tanks, with 4 sidewalks, with roads. I mean, we have -- 5 over the years that I've participated and 6 still now, the Mayor has done a good job 7 with lots of different issues that he has to 8 face.

9 But, again, if we're fortunate enough to 10 get some resources that can be utilized over 11 and above the budget, I would do it in areas 12 that really need the help.

13 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Thank you. Second 14 question on the General Counsel. I 15 appreciated the creativity of your 16 suggestion. In addition to that, do you see 17 any need for the way that the General
18 Counsel is appointed to change?

19 MR. WEINSTEIN: Not if you keep it every 20 two years. Not if it's not a -- not if it 21 rotates every couple years.

22 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Every couple
23 years?

24 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yeah. If it stays for 25 an indefinite amount of time and it sort of

1 becomes a career and relationships build and 2 that sort of begins to maybe not be bad, but 3 potentially look bad. That's just -- but I
4 wouldn't -- I believe it's supported by the 5 Mayor and confirmed by Council, right, yeah.
6 I think that's always the best way to do it.

7 COMMISSIONER DENTON: There are other
8 ways, like the way some judges are appointed 9 from a panel, agreed upon --

10 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yeah, but you lose 11 accountability. Ultimately, the Council and 12 the Mayor are accountable to the people.
13 Once you get into appointments that don't 14 ultimately have accountability, it gets a 15 little bit risky.

16 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Thirdly and 17 finally, I appreciated your discussion of 18 the Council President's role and the issue
19 of every -- really every six or seven months 20 there is a -- that he or she has six or 21 seven months to have their agenda done and 22 after a year everything changes. And we've 23 seen that recently. And you said any change 24 would be monumental.

25 MR. WEINSTEIN: Change, I meant that

1 more in the resources area.

2 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Oh, okay.

3 MR. WEINSTEIN: You've had some Council
4 Members that were president for two years,
5 which takes away that issue, but it makes it
6 more difficult to get there. You got 19 7 people wanting to be president, and they 8 don't have many years to get there. So 9 that's really built into the problem.

10 But if it was a two-year term, you 11 definitely could be much more proactive and 12 start developing your own strategies and 13 priorities in getting them implemented. You 14 would upset the other members that are 15 trying to get to be president, that's the 16 only problem with it.

17 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Well, that's what 18 I was getting to, did you see a way that 19 that might change? And a two-year term is 20 one possibility. Do you see any other ways?

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Not that doesn't require 22 a huge change in resources and structure, 23 no, because the Council just doesn't have 24 the resources to do much more than react.

25 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Thank you.

1 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Mr. Gentry.

2 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Thank you.

3 Good morning.

4 MR. WEINSTEIN: Hey, W.C.

5 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Mike, thank you
6 for everything you've done.

7 MR. WEINSTEIN: Thank you for everything
8 you've done.

9 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: One thing you
10 didn't mention, as I recall, you came about 11 that close in the finals of the mayor's race 12 a few years ago. Anyway, thanks for 13 everything.

14 I have two areas I want to ask you
15 about. And the first one was one that you 16 start off talking about, which is goals.
17 And just as an example, I served on the 18 Crime Commission we just -- whatever 19 happened to that, and the Jax Journey and 20 various things.

21 Crime is a goal in this city -- or doing
22 something about crime, but yet we continue
23 to have the same crime problems in this town 24 that we've had as long as I can remember.
25 Supposedly it's our -- a major issue for us.

1 Education, and I agree a thousand
2 percent with everything you've said, I mean,
3 one of my issues that I've struggled with 4 for so long unsuccessfully is that we know 5 that, if a child can't read effectively by 6 the end of third grade, that they can't then 7 read to learn and they cannot be successful.
8 And that's the number one predictor of 9 crime, welfare and leading to poverty. We 10 know that.

11 But with both crime and the result of 12 poor education, and poverty, and education, 13 looking at education, it requires -- if we 14 want to really do something, it requires the 15 Early Learning Coalition and all the 16 entities involved with early learning. It
17 requires the school district doing its job 18 of properly educating these children early 19 and focusing on literacy. It requires the 20 City putting funds in after school and 21 summer camps and having a concerted effort 22 to focus on literacy as part of what they're 23 doing. And it would involve, could involve, 24 should involve the whole City, the JEA and 25 all the rest, because it has to be a change

1 in the culture of the City.

2 We don't even have goals. I've yet to 3 see the articulated goal for crime that 4 involves the Sheriff's Department, the 5 education people, the City agencies. I
6 don't see any metrics. I don't see any 7 goals, expectations, or where we're going to 8 get or how we're going to get there. I
9 don't see that. I've never seen it.

10 So my question is and this is really a 11 Charter issue -- because the Council comes 12 and goes, and Mayors come and go -- how do 13 we first set goals? And I agree with you, 14 we need all the entities involved and 15 committed to priorities. And there should 16 be one or two or three key priorities, which 17 would finally get us out of this quagmire
18 we've been in for decades.

19 How do we set goals that are meaningful 20 real goals that transcend administration, 21 administration and that can -- that we can 22 finally focus on and get ourselves out of 23 our problems? How do we set those goals?
24 And what can we do within this Charter to 25 create a vehicle to once and for all

1 establish meaningful goals for our community
2 that we can then solve our problems?

3 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, if --

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: You have a minute
5 and a half left.

6 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Thank you.

7 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: You have all the 8 time you need.

9 MR. WEINSTEIN: Another consideration
10 from the Take Stock in Children, your point
11 about the reading, we also felt that, if a 12 child gets out of middle school, if the 13 child doesn't have hope by the time they get 14 out of middle school, hope of a good future, 15 they're gone. You can't get them back,
16 can't get them back.

17 The process, I would pull out what we 18 did in Ed Austin's time. It was a 19 community-wide effort where everybody was 20 invited, and they literally worked through 21 from large to specifics to get to goals, the 22 community goals for economic development.
23 And everybody participated that wanted to 24 participate.

25 The issue of having to transcend

1 administration to administration is very,
2 very difficult, very difficult, because 3 people come in with their own ideas and 4 their own priorities and what have you. You 5 can sell it through media and chamber and 6 what have you, but, ultimately, it's the 7 power of the purse.

8 I don't know how you literally -- unless 9 the goals are so well established and so 10 community-wide that a politician would be at 11 risk if they strayed from them and all they 12 do during the campaign is illustrate how 13 they're going to work towards those goals, 14 that would be a nice utopia if we could get 15 there.

16 But I believe through a legitimate
17 process, you could get to a dozen goals, 18 some of which relate to crime, some of which 19 relate to education, some of which relate to 20 economic development, and try to make them 21 strong enough that there would be 22 commitments to it. But, ultimately, they're 23 all going to require finances.

24 But even the independent authorities
25 could move to education, independent

1 authorities could commit to have 50 interns
2 every year. They could commit to do things
3 where they could illustrate they're doing
4 something, you know. Maybe they're not 5 spending money. Maybe they're going in and 6 every -- you know, they're providing 7 volunteers to go into the classroom. There 8 are so many different ways that all of our 9 different assets can work towards legitimate 10 goals of the community if we impress upon 11 them enough to know that's important, that's 12 important.

13 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: The other area I
14 wanted to ask about, I think it's -- 15 definitely, in looking at the Charter, we 16 have to figure this out somehow about 17 setting goals. The second area is the 18 General Counsel. And I'll talk real
19 quickly, unless Mr. Denton will loan me a 20 minute he didn't use a minute ago.

21 COMMISSIONER DENTON: Of course.

22 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Thank you. Now I
23 have six.

24 Big issue, and this binding opinion
25 thing, and I know you're familiar with this,

1 but the Article Seven actually says that the 2 General Counsel's opinion is binding unless 3 it's overturned by a court --

4 MR. WEINSTEIN: Circuit judge, circuit
5 judge.

6 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Except, to do
7 that, you have to have counsel. And the 8 General Counsel won't allow you to hire an 9 attorney because his opinion is binding, you 10 don't really need one, so that's the end of 11 the story. So if you can't get a lawyer to 12 take it to court, then you can't overturn 13 it.

14 And General Counsel also takes the 15 position the only person who has standing to 16 challenge his ruling is that entity, which 17 it can't challenge it because it's binding.
18 So you just go around in a circle.

19 So I liked your suggestions, but how -- 20 the Charter obviously contemplates a sense
21 of fairness if there is some way to question
22 this ruling. Again, there is no real device 23 to do that based on the interpretation of 24 General Counsel. How do we deal with that?
25 Do we need to amend the Charter and get rid

1 of that other language? Or do we come up
2 with something else?

3 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, the entity can 4 still file, they have a lawyer, General
5 Counsel lawyer, but they can still file for 6 an opinion. That's why you need the General
7 Counsel not to be so embedded and be more 8 open as an appellate would be, basically the 9 opinion is being taken to a higher court.

10 I wouldn't structure it so it would be 11 willy-nilly and be done all the time, but at 12 times it should go to -- in order to put it
13 at rest, the community and the inside 14 fighting, if you built in a process where 15 that could happen, that might take away one 16 of the largest criticisms that we have now
17 with the structure that it is. And I think 18 it would be more likely to happen if the 19 person wasn't there for a career.

20 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Thank you.

21 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Ms. Mills, I saw 22 your card up. Was that from before or did 23 you want to speak?

24 COMMISSIONER MILLS: I did want to.

25 Good morning. Thank you, Mr. Weinstein,

1 for coming out to speak with us. I've been 2 in Jacksonville for many, many years, all my 3 life, native.

4 And I did like what you said about 5 giving up the betterment for what's best for 6 the City. And when I was reading the 7 blueprint from the previous Charter, it
8 talked about the missions of independent 9 authorities, that we clearly don't even 10 understand what their missions are, so we 11 definitely won't be able to understand how 12 they can integrate with the City.

13 But how would you -- you said something 14 about consolidation. Consolidation came 15 with a lot of broken promises for certain 16 areas of town in Jacksonville. And I don't 17 mean to be bluntly about it, but I'm sorry,
18 that's the only way I can speak to it.

19 When you talk about education and you 20 talk about the level of crime and why it's 21 happening in our City -- I ran for City
22 Council for two terms, not to become a 23 career politician, because that's what 24 happens and we get comfortable, so we don't 25 make the necessary changes and we don't

1 stand out to represent the oath that we 2 stand for.

3 But what would you suggest that would 4 need to happen? I know everybody likes to 5 use the word urban core, because I guess
6 that's what's proper, but I'm just not one
7 of those people. When I look at the north
8 side and I see the property value steadily
9 decreasing, when I see the education that's 10 being awarded to students that are in that 11 area, when I look at the options that they 12 have that are very limited, how do you get 13 the General Counsel to understand the 14 importance of what's been going on for many, 15 many years, that it has to stop? Because we 16 are one Jacksonville, but we're not 17 operating that way.

18 So it does cause a sense of concern with 19 me when I hear people talk about 20 consolidation, because consolidation doesn't 21 work for everybody. And it hasn't for many, 22 many years.

23 So we've got to get out of people not 24 respecting the City Council, or the Mayor, 25 or the Sheriff, because, you know, those are

1 stakeholders, we do need those in place.
2 But if you're not in place to represent what 3 you said you would represent, then that just 4 causes more concerns. And we're at a place
5 now in Jacksonville where, you know, one 6 more murder is too many. We are already at 7 enough, but one more is just too many.

8 I've grown up here and been able to walk 9 and go and do anything I wanted to do. And 10 now you have kids that are saying, "I just 11 want to be safe." And that breaks my heart 12 to hear a little child say, "I want to be 13 safe."

14 We have a lot of task forces. Where are 15 those reports from those task forces? One 16 of those task forces has been in existence 17 for a while. I haven't heard anything from 18 them. I mean, what are you doing? Are we 19 meeting just to meet? Because that's what 20 it sounds like to me. Where is a report
21 that shows, you know, what are you doing;
22 are we helping with the crime; or, you know, 23 what is going on? Where is the 24 accountability for this great city that we 25 live in? And I just --

1 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, the accountability
2 comes every four years when people go out
3 and vote and what have you.

4 But, I mean, government can only do so 5 much. And, you know, the problems we have 6 with behavior is rooted in families and 7 education and things that government just 8 can't throw -- throw along at.

9 But this administration and this Council
10 over the years has provided much more
11 resources to -- and they're Band-Aid
12 resources. They're crimes after the fact 13 and all the police and what have you. But 14 also to the KHA and the money that's being 15 spent for the children's programs continues 16 to grow and what have you.

17 But, again, we've got a segment of our 18 community, as every major city has in this 19 country, that are lost, and abandoned, and 20 have no hope, and behave the way they want 21 to. And government is not going to be able 22 to do anything about that in the immediate 23 future. It's got to be from the grassroots, 24 through education and dealing with poverty.

25 But Council and the Mayor can only do so

1 much. And this Council and the Mayor over 2 the years have done a lot with the resources 3 that it has.

4 But, again, if -- you know, we did a
5 Renaissance with Ed Austin and took in a 6 couple hundred million dollars to do things.
7 We did the Better Jacksonville Plan with 8 Delaney, took in a couple hundred million 9 dollars and did a variety of things. That 10 option is always open through the community 11 to do and do a lot of things with those 12 resources.

13 So there is opportunities ahead, but 14 it's not easy and it's not short-term.

15 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Ms. Santiago.

16 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: Thank you,
17 again, for being here. I actually just have 18 three really quick questions for you. I 19 appreciate the conversation that we've had 20 this morning about priorities. I know that 21 that was one of the ways that under Mayor
22 Brown we operated. It was very simple.
23 Here is my five top priorities, figure out
24 how you as an independent authority or you 25 as an independent employee align to those.

1 So I really appreciate that.

2 Right now with the college that's how we 3 do it as well, so how does everything that 4 we propose tie back into it.

5 My question, though, is you stated that 6 the independent authorities are meeting on a 7 regular basis. And I know --

8 MR. WEINSTEIN: He said that.

9 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: They do.
10 I'm sorry.

11 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: They do, okay.

12 And I know that was one of the things
13 that we did. We would bring different
14 partners in several times when there was a 15 crisis around the hospitals. For example,
16 UF Health, we brought all the hospitals
17 together. If it was a poverty issue, we 18 brought all the partners together. So we do 19 it when it comes to issues.

20 But to your point, if they're already 21 meeting on a regular basis, the independent 22 authorities, why are they not inviting -- 23 what's your opinion of why are they not 24 including the Mayor's Office and City
25 Council in those meetings?

1 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, they may be. The 2 Mayor may very well be a part of this. I do 3 not know if he's a part of those meetings or 4 not. But I believe those meetings are more 5 of, again, a dog and pony as to what they're 6 doing. And they're doing great things, but 7 not -- instead of a dog and pony, they 8 should come together and say, this is what 9 I'm doing for the City's goals, not ours,
10 but the City's goals. But Mayor very well 11 may be meeting.

12 And I don't know if the Council
13 continues to change -- they have liaisons.
14 The Council appoints liaisons to each of 15 those independent authorities, but they tend 16 to be just reporting back. They go to the 17 board meetings and then report back to 18 Council what's happening and what have you.

19 So they're happening and it's good that 20 they're happening, but not for -- they can 21 be happening for more purposes.

22 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: My second
23 question had to do with the central services 24 and the fact that you talked about 25 procurement costs being lowered when you go

1 through a central service. But you also 2 talked about -- the example that you gave 3 was JFRD taking priority over some of our 4 lesser needs. And I completely agree and I 5 understand why you would do that. My 6 question, though, becomes, if I am one of 7 those lower authorities or entities within 8 the City, at what point do I raise up high 9 enough to be able to say, okay, we're going 10 to do five top priorities concerning safety
11 or, you know, we're going to give priority 12 to JSO, JFRD, but we're also going to 13 include three priorities that maybe are at 14 that lower tier. How long do they have to 15 wait before they do reach that higher 16 priority?

17 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, differently at 18 different times. I mean, basically, it's 19 the way you do budget, you do your home 20 budget, you go down the priorities as far as 21 you can until you're out of resources.

22 I mean, there are hundreds of people
23 that work in the IT. And, again, we have 24 3,200 or so vehicles. So they're big, big,
25 big businesses. And those other priorities

1 tend to get done when they're important
2 enough and the resources are there.

3 But the other option is for them to go
4 outside when it costs the City more. And 5 sometimes they don't coordinate in a way
6 that it's efficient.

7 So it's just like everybody else has to 8 do, and every government has to do. You go 9 down the list as far as you possibly can, 10 and they're pitted against each other just 11 like they are in your home. You know, the 12 priorities are pitted against each other,
13 and you do the ones that need to be done 14 most.

15 But it functions. And, again, the 16 government, it runs pretty darn well for 17 being a monster government. So the ones
18 that need to get done get done. The ones 19 that really don't need to get done hardly 20 ever get done.

21 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: I would say
22 that's probably the functionality of why
23 they do go outside.

24 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yep.

25 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: Okay. My last

1 question, and this goes back to the 2 discussion that we had was about -- you
3 mentioned that you thought that the two-year
4 terms for City Council President --

5 MR. WEINSTEIN: Oh, yeah, yeah.

6 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: So my question,
7 though, is I know in other discussions we 8 talked about altering the term limits for 9 City Council Members. We talked about maybe 10 doing six-year -- two terms of six years.
11 We've talked about three terms with four 12 years. Either way we're talking about the 13 possibility of extending those terms.

14 If that was to happen, do you think then 15 that a two-year presidency term would give 16 each Council Member the length of time -- 17 because your argument was that they don't 18 have enough time to get to the presidency 19 role.

20 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, it would add 21 stress if they have a desire. Some will 22 never want to be, because it's a very 23 different position.

24 I said that the two-year term is -- it 25 has been done. And someone has stayed two,

1 a couple of them have. But that's a big 2 decision for them. I'm not suggesting they 3 do it. But in order to have Council 4 participate a little bit more with 5 priorities and what have you, that may be 6 one way to get there.

7 Eight years is a long time. And 8 everybody basically stays eight, almost 9 everyone stays the eight years.

10 The only thing that I would consider 11 changing is the timing so that they don't -- 12 ten of them don't come in, and within days
13 be given a budget that's millions of dollars 14 and not have any idea what to do with it.

15 Again, not so much that the budget is a 16 problem, because the Mayor does balance 17 budgets, but it just sets the tone that 18 Council has a limited role in that process.

19 Two years -- if you're looking to have 20 it run a little bit differently and -- the 21 two-year term as a Council President would 22 definitely make a change, but you'd have to 23 get the other 18 to agree to do it, which 24 might be difficult.

25 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: Thank you.

1 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: All right.

2 Mr. Griggs.

3 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: Mike, I just have 4 one follow-up question. I believe it's one
5 follow-up question from Mr. Denton's 6 remarks. He brought up the fact that he 7 asked you about, like, an urban core 8 investment authority. And your response to 9 that was you didn't think that would be a 10 good idea because somebody would have to 11 fund it and you would need, like, a certain 12 entity, like a taxing district area or 13 something like that to fund it. I'm not 14 mischaracterizing that, am I?

15 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yeah. A little bit
16 broader than that. If it's a priority, it 17 will get the funds. I'm not an advocate of 18 locking up resources, whether it be downtown
19 or the beaches or anything. The Mayor sits 20 down and does a balanced budget to 21 priorities, and the Council, you know, does 22 what they do. I wouldn't limit their 23 flexibility in spending money according to 24 priorities. So I wouldn't dictate -- I
25 mean, again, if it was a high enough

1 priority to do something in the urban core,
2 it should get done anyhow.

3 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: So wouldn't that 4 rationale be true for downtown? Why would 5 we need a DIA if that's the case?

6 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, DIA isn't so much
7 the resources, because they tend to be City 8 resources. They are the services that are 9 provided to the outside individuals that 10 want to do things. You know, the DIA sits 11 as the front line to the developers and the 12 people that want to build buildings and 13 change things downtown. The vast majority 14 of the resources that they spend comes from 15 City Council and the Mayor and the grievance 16 and through budget.

17 But, again, I'm not an advocate -- I've 18 always been an advocate as it relates to DIA 19 is running it more like a business. At the 20 beginning of the year, the Mayor and the 21 City Council obligates $10 million for 22 economic development. And they know that 23 they have these resources to give out and 24 deal with incentives and what have you. And 25 the outside community knows it.

1 Now, if something comes in that's just 2 beyond, you know, the pale, you go back and 3 you fix it. But to treat it like you do all 4 the other agencies and entities, that this 5 is your budget for the year, including your 6 incentives to give out, go and do all that 7 you can with them. Instead, we deal with it 8 project by project. And I'm not a fan of 9 that, just from a budgetary point of view.

10 But DIA is part of the reason, I think,
11 JEDC was torn apart is downtown just is 12 different. It's just different. And it 13 needs to continue to be expanded.

14 You know, give you just the tax issue.
15 Residential communities don't provide enough 16 ad valorem taxes for the services that they 17 require. Your downtown cores, your 18 employment centers provide more ad valorem
19 than they require in services.

20 So if we're not building up those kinds 21 of entities, then everybody is going to 22 suffer. That's why these other communities 23 that are just bedroom communities have 24 problems more so with their ad valorem 25 because their ad valorem has to be higher to

1 meet the needs that they have, because they 2 don't have the employment centers and the 3 downtowns.

4 So the downtown core helps everybody as 5 it's developed. And that's part of the 6 reason why it has such a dedicated group of 7 proponents. So they're different.

8 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: I would love to 9 have this debate with you offline. But from 10 the perspective that I've been hearing is 11 that entities like DIA are more of a 12 priority to cities than areas like the urban 13 core, who have been behind. And if you 14 mirrored such an agency on authority to 15 address strategically those issues that have 16 repeatedly taken over the urban core,
17 education, health, economic development,
18 you'd have an authority in place to address
19 those --

20 MR. WEINSTEIN: It would just have to be 21 so different. I mean, the downtown
22 development authority gets its money, to a 23 certain extent, from the ad valorem
24 increases. A tax increment district gets 25 their money from the ad valorem increases.

1 The areas that you're talking about
2 don't have those tax increment district
3 gross. That's why the Arlington one is 4 going to be so difficult. That's why the 5 Mayport -- when we first came into office,
6 they were trying to do a Mayport tax
7 increment district. There'd be no money
8 there for such a long time.

9 So whatever entity you created would 10 still need to go to the Mayor and Council to 11 get any resources at all to do anything.

12 Now, this entity that was created can 13 come up with priorities for the core and be 14 an arm to go to the Mayor and to go to 15 Council and advocate for resources for those 16 priorities. But there wouldn't be any 17 available dollars other than through the 18 normal budgetary process.

19 But, if it's to develop priorities and 20 what have you for that particular area, 21 there is nothing wrong with that.

22 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: I think we have to 23 decide whether the deficiencies of the urban 24 core outweigh the deficiencies of downtown
25 or any other priority and make it a priority

1 if it is, in fact, that important to the 2 community, because our crime rate, 3 unemployment, those things are not single 4 issue ideas. They are collectives, they are 5 strategic. And they have to be addressed 6 wholistically. And if we think that we just 7 need to improve education and we'll be fine,
8 we're missing the point. There is a 9 continuum there that goes on that was 10 created and allowed to fester over 50 years, 11 and we have not addressed it.

12 And I think what my point has been since 13 I've been here is that we should be looking 14 at some type of mechanism that addresses
15 that that allows a framework that no
16 matter who -- if the Council, the Mayor, 17 anyone, they can't go outside that framework 18 in addressing and reversing the issues that 19 have been going on for the last 50 years.

20 We've allowed that to happen because we 21 see shiny objects that come up, and we want 22 to be here, we want to have a Superbowl, we 23 want to do all these things. We haven't 24 addressed these issues.

25 MR. WEINSTEIN: The Council can pass an

1 ordinance that says this percentage of ad
2 valorem must be spent in this particular 3 area. They can always do that. But with 4 ten votes, they can undue it. But they can 5 definitely make their interests known.

6 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: But what happens
7 in the Charter goes beyond that, and I think 8 that's what we're addressing here so we 9 don't have to rely on the Council to do the 10 right thing, because we're not going to have 11 enough votes between four Council Members
12 and potentially two at-large members to ever 13 do the type of work that's going on unless 14 they spend four years convincing people 15 strategically that these things are 16 important. You know, people have to come in 17 with these issues as a priority in order to 18 get them done.

19 MR. WEINSTEIN: You could lock in a 20 certain percentage of some revenue stream to 21 go to certain things, you can do that.

22 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: Thank you.

23 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: We've had you here
24 for about an hour. Are you still good?

25 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yeah. I just don't know

1 who is going to take care of my ticket,
2 that's the only thing. I see more things
3 standing up than laying down.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Mr. Howland.

5 COMMISSIONER HOWLAND: Thank you,
6 Mr. Chair. I'll be quick.

7 Thank you, Mr. Weinstein, for coming in,
8 really appreciate it. Your insight is 9 invaluable.

10 And I love the idea of a strategic 11 planning process city-wide that develops and 12 aligns the various organizations,
13 independent authorities and priorities. I 14 love even more one that's aligned with the 15 budget, because coming from the business
16 world, if you don't align your priorities
17 with your funding sources, you're not going 18 to get anywhere.

19 I would take it to the next step, and I
20 would invite us as a Charter Revision
21 Commission to think about what 22 Mr. Schellenberg proposed years ago or what 23 the task force on consolidation proposed in 24 2014; and that is, and I quote, a permanent 25 coordinating commission focussed on a single

1 unifying mission.

2 And the reason that I suggest that is -- 3 actually, it goes back to something 4 Ms. Mills said and Mr. Weinstein said, and 5 that's accountability, because there's 6 certain things, I think, even between 7 election cycles that come up that, if the 8 various elements of the consolidated 9 government were looking at it together, we 10 might be able to address more efficiently.

11 And, interestingly, one of them, it's 12 probably unpopular to bring up right now, 13 but it's the school infrastructure issue.
14 That didn't just materialize in April. We 15 didn't just suddenly have the oldest schools 16 in the state of Florida this year. We have 17 had for a long time. And we've known about 18 the infrastructure issue since 2009.

19 So had we had a unified kind of 20 coordinated commission, I think this issue 21 probably would have been one that was 22 brought to the front and potentially among 23 the five, six, seven strategic priorities 24 that the City would discuss. And it would 25 force an elected body to be accountable to 1 other elements.

2 So the fact that you brought that up,
3 the insight you provided, I think, is good 4 guide for us. And I would say we almost 5 have some pretty strong consensus that this 6 could be one of the first subcommittees we 7 form and look at officially in the fall.

8 I won't step on your toes, it's your 9 decision, Mr. Chair, but I think there's a 10 consensus on it.

11 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I tell you what, if 12 we had a drinking game of every time I wrote 13 down strategic planning, everybody would be 14 rather woozy right now because that seems to 15 be something that's came up a lot.

16 COMMISSIONER HOWLAND: I'm done. Thank 17 you very much.

18 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Next, Ms. Lisska,
19 first time.

20 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: How are you, Mike,
21 Mr. Weinstein? Thank you for being here.

22 Just a couple of questions, and you may 23 have already answered them in part, I think 24 you have. But you've been so forthcoming, 25 maybe we'll get you to be even more so.

1 We've talked about the power of the 2 executive branch and, you know, the power of 3 the three branches of government. You know,
4 I can't even add up all the appointments a
5 Mayor gets. And on any level, do you think 6 a Mayor has too many appointments? I mean,
7 it's -- you know, in the Charter, I'm trying 8 to go through and sort of put numbers, but 9 then there is, of course, which makes sense,
10 the Mayor's staff, his or her staff, you 11 know, all the appointments there, which the 12 Charter outlines in part -- and, well, in 13 total, I believe.

14 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, it's an incredible 15 responsibility that the Mayor's staff has to 16 keep up with all the vacancies throughout.
17 I don't know what an alternative would be.
18 Again, going back to -- if the ultimate 19 appointing authority isn't accountable to 20 the people, it gets sort of -- it could get 21 lost.

22 Now, a lot of them require Council and a 23 lot of them don't. But as Council creates 24 different task forces and different
25 entities, they do have to get appointed.

1 Other than the labor that's involved in 2 it, I don't think -- you know, president has 3 it, governor has it. It's a way of getting 4 more and more people involved. I wouldn't 5 reduce them.

6 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Well, when it
7 comes to independent authorities, I mean --

8 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, the major ones, 9 they need to definitely be Council and 10 Mayor.

11 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Okay. So Council
12 and Mayor?

13 MR. WEINSTEIN: Which is the way they 14 are now.

16 MR. WEINSTEIN: And, again, I hate to 17 not have someone accountable to the people 18 that are making these decisions. So that 19 always brings me back to an elected 20 official.

21 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: And you also -- 22 this you might need to clarify for me. I
23 may be misstating. I was sort of surprised 24 to hear you say, you know, consolidation has 25 delivered. I took it as check it off. You

1 live in Mandarin, I live in Mandarin. And,
2 you know, a promise of consolidation is we 3 don't have to deal with these septic tanks 4 anymore, and the water service will get to 5 all the homes in Jacksonville.

6 Well, we're 51 years later nearly in 7 October, October 1, 51 years later, and we 8 still don't have those services throughout 9 the city. And I hear a lot of complaints 10 about that, probably other than crime,
11 probably that's the biggest issue I hear.
12 But I live in an area without those 13 services.

14 What is your reaction to that? And 15 maybe clarify about it, because maybe I 16 misunderstood you about the delivery of 17 consolidation.

18 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, consolidation has 19 worked in many, many ways. Every year 20 through the budget the septic tanks and the 21 water is addressed. It's hundreds of 22 millions of dollars to do it all.

23 You could argue that the past
24 Renaissance and Better Jacksonville Plan 25 could have moved more quickly in those

1 areas. But with each passing budget, the 2 Mayor and JEA, you know, they put in 3 30 million and another 15 million. So it's 4 moving in the right direction as fast as it
5 could be. Maybe it's moving much faster 6 because it's consolidated than it would if 7 everybody was left alone to their own
8 resources, but it's not done.

9 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: So 51 years is 10 pretty fast?

11 MR. WEINSTEIN: I wasn't here in '68. I 12 don't know if there was a promise that these 13 things would be done quickly. There's been 14 years where the budget shrank and what have 15 you.

16 But, I think, as my first comment out, 17 was that we need to get that complaint
18 behind us, that consolidation left behind -- 19 and the success of consolidation is more 20 towards the outside, again, coming here and 21 trying to figure out how to work here, how 22 to build buildings, how to get things done.

23 All the promises made to the people that 24 voted here in the '60s maybe it hasn't been 25 fulfilled. In certain areas, definitely

1 hasn't been fulfilled. But it continues to 2 move in the right direction.

3 But, again, with the community and the 4 opportunities the community has, they can 5 put together some substantial funds and 6 address those things quicker than they've 7 been addressed. But they have been 8 addressed each and every budget that I've 9 seen, but not to the extent that some people 10 would like it to be.

11 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: And I try to ask
12 this question to everyone who is gracious 13 enough to come before the Commission; and 14 that is, is there anything in the Charter 15 that you -- you've made some recommendations 16 today, and I know we noted them, but 17 anything else that you haven't covered that 18 you'd like to see changed or adjusted or 19 added or taken out of the Charter in any 20 way?

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Not specifically. It's 22 been a good foundation. It's been a good 23 foundation.

24 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Thank you so much
25 for your time today.

1 MR. WEINSTEIN: Thanks, Emily.

2 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. Next, for the 3 first time, Ms. Baker.

4 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Hey, Mike, how are 5 you?

6 MR. WEINSTEIN: Good.

7 COMMISSIONER BAKER: So a couple things, 8 and going back to what you talked about with 9 unified goals for the City, I think what you 10 were getting at is creating a commission, is 11 how we would structure it in our Charter.
12 Because that's what we're doing here, we're 13 going to be amending the Charter and making
14 recommendations to the City Council. So I 15 think -- I just wanted to clarify that's 16 what you were getting at, is that we create 17 a structure in our Charter that would create 18 an entity, essentially, of all the 19 stakeholders in order to get those goals,
20 those long-term goals for the City.

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, there are two 22 pieces to that. One was the pieces that are 23 government related and requiring all the 24 elements of government, all the elements of 25 government to sign on to the City's

1 priorities and to illustrate how they're 2 utilizing their resources to an extent to 3 help those priorities.

4 The other part of the topic is a 5 community-wide exercise to come up with 6 those priorities so they can be looked at as 7 community-wide and have more likely success
8 in getting brought in by the stakeholders.
9 Again, sort of modeled after what we had 10 done in Ed Austin's term for economic 11 development.

12 The Commission -- well, the things you 13 can do in the Charter could basically get to 14 where you're requiring all the elements to 15 work towards and to periodically revisit
16 those priorities, but I'm not sure -- I 17 leave it to your -- do you have a lawyer 18 assigned to you?

19 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes.

20 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Ms. Johnston.

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: To work out how the 22 language would get to where you can embed 23 something that has some staying power and 24 some authority to make all the elements 25 illustrate how they're helping with the

1 City-wide goals.

2 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Because that's what 3 I ultimately want to get to is how do we 4 amend the Charter in order to get to what 5 you're saying.

6 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yeah. I believe that -- 7 I'd have to leave that to her and others in 8 her office to figure that out. I don't 9 know.

10 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Okay. And then
11 also going to the OGC, so I'm looking at a 12 list here that Ms. Johnston provided for us.
13 And it goes back with all the OGCs. The 14 last 50 years since 1968 there have been 14
15 OGCs, General Counsels. And it looks 16 like -- I mean, I have been tallying up the 17 years. It looks like most of them actually 18 have only stayed one to two years. McQuaig, 19 '76 to '84 was eight years; and then 20 Mullaney, 13 years.

21 And so one of my questions to you is are 22 you concerned with your proposal of doing a 23 two-year appointment, would you be concerned 24 that there may not be a big pool of 25 applicants, essentially, to fill that role

1 because there are so many requirements in 2 our Charter already that they have to have,
3 education and so on, in order to even be the 4 General Counsel.

5 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, proposal is 6 too -- I refer that as an idea if you as a 7 group feel that you want to take on trying 8 to do away with that controversy that tends 9 to come back and forth. I think being the 10 General Counsel, the City of Jacksonville is 11 such a good thing in your career that I
12 would be surprised that a lot of lawyers 13 wouldn't want to do that as part of their -- 14 and they would know that they don't have to 15 give up their own private practice, because 16 they would be coming back to it. It would 17 be different if you came in knowing that 18 you're there for two years rather than going 19 in and not knowing how long you'd stay.

20 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Thinking you might 21 be there for four, eight, ten.

22 MR. WEINSTEIN: But, to your point, you 23 may want to look at some of those 24 requirements. If you're serious about 25 changing the term, you might want to also

1 look at some of the requirements to make it 2 more wide open for lawyers to come in and 3 act as the General Counsel for a couple 4 years.

5 COMMISSIONER BAKER: I do agree with 6 you. I mean, we've had past speakers who 7 have said this is our Supreme Court, and so 8 exactly what you're saying, it's the glue to 9 the City.

10 MR. WEINSTEIN: It's a very -- as a 11 lawyer, we've got a number of lawyers in the 12 room, it's a nice piece of your career if 13 you can do that.

14 COMMISSIONER BAKER: And similar to a 15 court, there is always going to be someone 16 who is not going to be happy with outcome.
17 There is always going to be someone who wins 18 and someone who loses, and that's basically 19 the same as our OGC on some high-level 20 issues.

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yeah. And to W.C.'s 22 issues, to have embedded some mechanism to 23 appeal it, but have it be a high bar, would 24 be helpful in making it less controversial 25 but making it a high bar.

1 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Thank you.

2 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And next,

3 Ms. Jameson, first time.

4 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Good morning.

5 MR. WEINSTEIN: Why are you sitting next 6 to me?

7 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: She makes 8 you look good.

9 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: I'm sequestered
10 from the rest of the group.

11 So good morning, thank you.

12 Just to follow up on that line of 13 questioning about if it were a two-year
14 appointment, would you suggest that's a 15 one-time appointment? Could someone be 16 reappointed and continue that continuity?
17 Or what would your suggestion be as far as 18 that goes?

19 MR. WEINSTEIN: That's an interesting
20 question. Definitely not to extend -- I
21 mean, a two-year term, at a minimum you 22 would have to be out a while. And I think 23 two years would be too short. I wouldn't 24 make it so you couldn't come back, but I 25 would make it that you have to some -- at

1 least four years to break up the -- again, 2 what you want to do is lessen the 3 relationships that you build working day in,
4 day out, seeing each other day in, day out.
5 So I would definitely have a gap and have it 6 be a gap of at least two years if you want 7 to have a gap at all.

8 But, to Jessica's point, maybe you might 9 want to have them be able to come back just 10 in case you don't have enough interest.

11 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Thank you. And 12 then on a couple other things you brought 13 up, one was timing of elections. So what 14 would you suggest be that new timing of the 15 elections? That's something that we've all
16 talked about, again, having a new City
17 Council come in and then a week later 18 they're looking at a new budget. So would 19 you be suggesting moving this to the fall 20 before or after where they currently are?

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, I mean, the easy 22 answer is to make it part of the national 23 elections. I mean, the argument is that you 24 don't get the focus and what have you, but 25 if it were me, I would save the money and

1 put it on when the primaries and the 2 nationals are on, or the governor. You
3 know, the governor is every two years. You 4 know, they're split. So definitely have 5 them when there are already existing 6 elections.

7 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Thank you. And 8 then also you had mentioned, as we talked 9 about DIA or potentially having a DIA-like 10 authority in the northwest quadrant, you've 11 also mentioned having a budget for 12 incentives. I'd be curious what your 13 thoughts are as far as how that might 14 disadvantage if, let's just say, we have a 15 couple more opportunities in one year, or 16 would then that budget be able to be carried 17 over into the next year.

18 MR. WEINSTEIN: The positive is that 19 they know what they have when they start.
20 If projects come up that warrant going 21 beyond that budget and going into the City's 22 budget for more resources, it only takes ten 23 votes. But you could make it if you wanted
24 to, to make it 13 votes. You could make it 25 a little bit of a higher benchmark, but one

1 thing that I found in my 40 years in and out
2 of government, if everybody wants to make 3 something happen, you can make it happen.
4 Somehow government can get there. And 5 especially with the ability to waive every 6 ordinance that exists with 10 votes and even 7 get around the Charter if they have to get 8 around it. I mean, there are mechanisms to 9 get there if the will is there.

10 And hopefully that will happen.

11 Hopefully some projects will come that are 12 so substantial that it will make it happen.

13 The difference -- why you can't do a 14 DIA, like, for some of the areas of the 15 community that need services is the DIA
16 generates a lot of its own money. And it's 17 generated by the property taxes going up, by 18 more people coming in and the values going 19 up. That doesn't happen in the areas that 20 really need it the most. So if you created 21 some sort of entity to make decisions over 22 that area, then you would need to fund it in 23 some way over and above the normal budget.

24 But, you know, they do have 25 representatives. You know, the reason why

1 we have five at-large Council Members is 2 because a Council Member should go in with 3 six votes. They should go in with their 4 district vote and the five at-larges. If an 5 issue is in a certain community that needs
6 to be addressed, you really start with six 7 votes, because those five at-larges
8 represent that area as well. So you need to 9 get four more votes.

10 So budget, like everything else, is just 11 a priority system. And the higher the 12 priority, the more resources that go towards 13 it. And the decision makers make those 14 priorities.

15 I answered more than your question. I'm 16 sorry.

17 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Thank you. I
18 appreciate it. That's all I have. Thank 19 you.

20 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Next up, Ms. Knight,
21 first time.

22 VICE CHAIRPERSON KNIGHT: Good morning.

23 MR. WEINSTEIN: Good morning.

24 VICE CHAIRPERSON KNIGHT: Thank you for 25 your overview.

1 I will tell you that I was a little busy
2 serving 24 years in the Navy. And then
3 coming to Jacksonville, I wasn't ingrained
4 in government politics. So listening to you
5 and others who have presented are really 6 helping me to discern a bit of what has 7 happened and what my suggestions may be.

8 The one thing that is bothering me from 9 an earlier conversation we've had is what's 10 going to come out of what we share as 11 recommendations, and revolved around the 12 blueprint that there is suggestions made 13 from previous commissions, but they don't go 14 anywhere.

15 So there is a lot of time being invested 16 here and will be further. And I would just 17 like your perspective on how you gain the 18 interest of the Council and the Mayor to 19 make some of the changes that we may 20 propose.

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Well, you have to look
22 at your suggestions from their perspective.
23 And some of them are harder to sell than 24 others because you might be nipping at some 25 of their power or some of their flexibility.

1 So you sit here representing the 2 community and you come up with ideas that 3 are legitimate in your minds, but then you
4 also have to sell them. And sometimes that 5 takes a little change to the suggestions, if 6 you follow me. I mean, you have to -- the 7 stakeholders -- the good thing about the 8 stakeholders is they're coming and going.
9 So what you're asking of them may not really 10 affect them because their term limits or 11 what have you.

12 But you do need to look realistically at 13 the suggestions that you make and look at 14 them from all different perspectives. And 15 then you have to sell the heck out of them, 16 because it's not easy. You know, some 17 people feel it's not broken; if it ain't 18 broken, don't fix it.

19 And knowing my years in Tallahassee,
20 most of our decisions had unintended
21 consequences. So you got to really think 22 through -- you know, your suggestions may be 23 very logical, but you have to really dig 24 into them and understand the ramifications 25 of them, potentially, and also who you're

1 nipping at.

2 VICE CHAIRPERSON KNIGHT: Thank you.

3 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. Now we're 4 back to seconds.

5 Mr. Schellenberg, I believe you put 6 yours back up.

7 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Thank you
8 very much.

9 I was just -- Michael has given you some 10 insight into, actually, how things work.
11 But I think it's important, actually, to 12 know actually what happens in Council going 13 forward.

14 So the power of the President of the 15 Council, his power is the appointment of the 16 chair of each of the five committees. And 17 mostly they're aligned with what he wants to 18 have done. But, generally speaking, if the 19 Council -- if the committee chair doesn't 20 want something to get done, he can shut it 21 down for a long time in spite of the 22 pressure from the other 18 colleagues going 23 forward.

24 I think that the Council, generally
25 speaking, they are on their own. And I have

1 never -- I have always encouraged some of 2 the previous presidents to be run for second 3 term. But I don't -- I have never 4 encouraged all of them, because you sort of 5 recognize who is on your side, which is 6 they're supposed to represent the Council,
7 no one else but the Council going forward.

8 So putting restrictions on having a
9 president for two years, I'm not so in favor 10 of it. But if the Council President that is 11 good, that he is loved, he's representing 12 the Council and is doing a good job working 13 with the Mayor but not always following his 14 policies, then he can get reelected. Most 15 of the time, obviously, that I made the 16 recommendation, they decided not to do it.

17 Just a couple questions, that tiff that 18 you mentioned on the River City, it was not 19 very successful for long periods of time.
20 It was fallow forever and all of a sudden it 21 just exploded. I'm not sure why, but it
22 really just took off. And you don't think 23 the same thing will happen in Arlington?

24 MR. WEINSTEIN: Hope fully that will 25 happen. It just takes a long time. But,

1 again, I'm opposed to putting dollars -- you
2 know, taking away the flexibility of Council
3 and the Mayor to decide how to spend the 4 budget where these dollars are locked in.
5 And the riverside -- by the airport is a
6 perfect example. It could exist for 10, 20
7 more years.

8 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I know.

9 MR. WEINSTEIN: And it doesn't need to.
10 And the way it happened is we did the 11 infrastructure, we built that interchange
12 there and that shopping center. And then it 13 just exploded.

14 But I'm a big fan of the Mayor and the 15 Council being able to spend the entire 16 budget the way the priorities of the City
17 are, not having been locked in 20 years
18 prior to where geographically it had to go.

19 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Yeah. The 20 Council tried at one time to expand that.

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: Let me give you one
22 example in my time in Tallahassee. You 23 talked about the president and appointing 24 the chairmen. My first year in Tallahassee
25 I was on a committee, criminal justice

1 committee. And we had a bill in front of us
2 that the chairman of the committee and the 3 chairman that had been there, he was there
4 his last term, the chairman of the committee 5 appointed by the house speaker wanted to put 6 an amendment on the bill, on the -- the bill 7 that was coming through. And the speaker of 8 the house didn't want the amendment to be 9 put on it.

10 The chairman of the committee put the 11 amendment on it and it passed the committee.
12 The next day that chairman was no longer 13 chairman or on that committee. The 14 difference between Tallahassee and the 15 example that -- and, ironically, the Council
16 President has that power here.

17 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: He does.

18 MR. WEINSTEIN: Never used, that I'm 19 aware of.

20 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Hasn't used.
21 And the committee, it has the power of the 22 committee, can always overrule the chair
23 too. It's rare too, by the way.

24 MR. WEINSTEIN: So the President has a 25 lot of power they don't necessarily use nor

1 should, but they have it if they needed it.

2 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Just a
3 couple things.

4 Ms. Lisska, you mentioned about
5 Mandarin, that's the area I represented.

6 But I believe this to be case, and you
7 brought it up. The millage rate would be 8 higher. I think that government closer to 9 the people knowing that the money would stay 10 in a specific area, they wouldn't object to 11 a higher millage rate.

12 By what is happening at the Beaches, 13 they're clearly paying more in millage and 14 other services that the other parts of Duval
15 County aren't, and they're willing to do it 16 because of the quality of life they have.

17 MR. WEINSTEIN: But there are some areas
18 that the millage would have to be so high 19 because their ad valorem would be so low 20 that they wouldn't get anything done at all.

21 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: My point is 22 there are pockets it would work. I
23 understand.

24 Committees, the Mayor has appointments, 25 the President of the Council has

1 appointments. There are 72, I think,
2 standing committees that the City Council 3 has.

4 You have that number, don't you,
5 Jessica?

6 COMMISSIONER BAKER: It was 72.

7 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: It's almost 8 impossible to fill it --

9 COMMISSIONER BAKER: I think --

10 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Go ahead.

11 COMMISSIONER BAKER: I was just going to 12 say I think they looked at that issue a year
13 ago, and there were only like 11 of them
14 that the Council could actually eradicate,
15 could dismantle. And then it --

16 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Yeah. I
17 tried to dismantle a lot of them in my first 18 term, and I saw no bearing.

19 But this goes back to what's mentioned 20 at W.C. and Frank and Ms. Mills. We have 21 that task force, and I understand that these 22 people spend a lot of time and there has 23 been no committee. And I've talked to 24 Mr. Denton about why it hasn't been, but I
25 don't think you should be -- the committees

1 are there, and you're getting volunteers to 2 do all this work, and they find that nothing 3 happens. I very rarely put people on the 4 committees because I found that they didn't 5 have any impact ultimately going forward.
6 And that is disappointing to the people that 7 spend time and effort in their volunteer 8 time to come and do good things going
9 forward.

10 You mentioned qualifications for OGC,
11 they can be waived at any time, much like 12 the previous two people that -- recently
13 that the Mayor has waived various positions.
14 So to have qualifications for OGC, they can 15 just be waived automatically and it wouldn't 16 have any impact whatsoever.

17 MR. WEINSTEIN: Oh, I thought they were 18 in the Charter.

19 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Yeah. They are in 20 the Charter.

21 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Yeah, but 22 you can waive them. You can always waive 23 them with 13 votes.

24 And one other thing I think important
25 when we go through this and thinking about

1 this, and it came up in the last discussion
2 when I asked, I guess, Wyman Duggan if he 3 had actually applied for the OGC, he said he 4 did not. It's partly because sometimes 5 inside baseball they already have a 6 candidate and that candidate is going to get 7 the votes, and so other people don't apply.

8 But there are many people that I've 9 talked to outside that would be glad to be 10 OGC, be glad to be on boards, but they feel 11 like the frustration not only getting there, 12 but actually getting something done prevents 13 them from spend the time and energy to be 14 involved. That's my comment. Thank you.

15 Oh, one other thing, by the way, there 16 is called a Railroad District that's near 17 Beaver Street and I dont know all of the 18 boundaries, but this is a private group of 19 people that have gotten companies together.
20 And the boundaries, I don't know, but it's 21 right there, Beaver Street, near Beaver
22 Street Fisheries, and it expands. I think 23 they have 50, 100, 200 people engaged in 24 this.

25 So people, individual people can make a

1 difference. And they are bringing that 2 community together not just for the 3 companies, but for the people that live 4 there, there are food deserts. They see the 5 problem and they are outlining it. They're 6 engaged with the transportation area, food,
7 all sorts of things. And it's remarkable
8 how this all came about. So individuals can 9 do it if they have a substantial amount of 10 people involved.

11 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay.

12 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: I have a question.

13 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Oh, yes.

14 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: This may be a 15 question for General Counsel. I'm just 16 intrigued as to the legal basis for waiving 17 a provision of the Charter with 13 votes of 18 the Council.

19 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Any Charter
20 can be waived by a vote of the Council.

21 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: The Charter is 22 supposedly like the constitution. And 23 ordinarily you don't waive provisions of the 24 constitution. You can amend the 25 constitution, but unless the constitution

1 provides for a waiver, you don't waive it.
2 I'm really asking General Counsel.

3 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I think Lincoln was 4 the last one that waived anything in the 5 constitution.

6 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: He did. And he 7 knew it was unconstitutional at the time, 8 but he did it anyway. That's called having 9 the power of the military also behind you.

10 And it's really a question for GC. What 11 is the basis of that? It would be good for 12 us to know. I'm not familiar with waiving 13 constitutional provisions unless the 14 constitution allows it.

15 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: My 16 understanding, and this came up a couple 17 times, we can waive --

18 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: I'm not asking 19 your understanding. I know your 20 understanding. I get that.

21 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I'm sorry.

22 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: I'm trying to find 23 out what is the legal basis of that. It may 24 be something that needs to be addressed.

25 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Paige, do you have

1 that answer?

2 MS. JOHNSTON: Through the Chair, I
3 brought the wrong notebook so I don't have 4 the Charter with me. I'm asking my 5 assistant to bring it down. I'm going to 6 look for that. I don't have the exact
7 answer in front of me.

8 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Okay.

9 MS. JOHNSTON: If you give me a few 10 minutes --

11 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Maybe at the next 12 meeting. It may be -- because it's been 13 raised a couple times, and it may or may 14 be -- it may be something that ought to be 15 addressed by us.

16 But maybe the next meeting, Mr. Chair, 17 we can just get a history of that.

18 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes, because I was 19 looking through here in the powers, and I
20 didn't see anything in there; however, there 21 is a reference to a statute within the 22 powers of the Council. So I don't know if 23 it's somewhere outside of our Charter itself
24 that allows it, but we'll get that answer.

25 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: I didn't remember

1 seeing anything on the face of the Charter
2 that did that. That's why I was asking.
3 Thank you.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Few questions. And 5 I'm having to go back through and try to 6 read my own notes. I was intrigued by the 7 idea, you know, like most people here, of -- 8 in fairness, I'll turn the timer on for me 9 too.

10 I was intrigued by the idea of the 11 General Counsel operating as that 12 independent appellate court. You had 13 mentioned having a counsel -- Assistant
14 General Counsel for the Mayor's Office. I 15 guess you would also need one set out
16 separately for City Council.

17 MR. WEINSTEIN: They all have assigned, 18 yeah, already.

19 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: So the only one that 20 would be new would be the one really for the 21 Mayor's Office.

22 MR. WEINSTEIN: There may already be one 23 internally, but --

24 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: The organizational 25 structure would have to --

1 MR. WEINSTEIN: Yeah. I don't know, but 2 the idea would be to get the particular 3 individuals, the General Counsel, not 4 engaged in client work, but only basically 5 for appellate work.

6 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Appellate work in 7 there. And also the -- I get -- because 8 there are several -- a couple of CRA's at 9 least in existence within the northwest 10 quadrant, the tax increment districts in 11 there. And the idea of a dedicated source 12 of funding for an agency much -- the one 13 that I wrote down here that came to mind was 14 Visit Florida. They get a chunk of money.
15 And you do your work for what you need in 16 that chunk of money.

17 I guess, I mean, is something like that 18 a little more palatable than tying up 19 specific resources, but maybe a percentage 20 that's adjusted?

21 MR. WEINSTEIN: The only way you could 22 do it is, yeah, a percentage of a revenue 23 stream, or percentage of the budget, or 24 percentage of this, or percentage of that.

25 KHA may get -- KHA ordinance may have

1 some minimum, I don't know. It used to in 2 the -- the Children's Commission used to 3 have a certain minimum. The new ordinance
4 may as well.

5 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: It doesn't 6 have any.

7 MR. WEINSTEIN: It doesn't.

8 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And, obviously, this 9 idea to have a strategic commission, a
10 strategic plan, is big. And I'm wondering 11 your thoughts -- you said about bringing the 12 entire community in. What are your thoughts
13 on much like how the CRC meets every ten 14 years, is that you have a period of years
15 that that strategic commission, whatever it
16 is would do a city-wide sort of roundtable 17 to measure what the percentage -- what the 18 priorities are that they've developed in 19 consideration with the community at large?

20 MR. WEINSTEIN: I would think every five 21 years it should be revisited. Five years 22 because it transcends a term and you should 23 look at your -- you do your -- five years, 24 to me, is the right number.

25 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And you address the

1 issue about the rotating off with regards to 2 General Counsel. So with that, thank you so 3 much.

4 MR. WEINSTEIN: You're welcome.

5 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: If you've got a
6 parking ticket, go see Ms. Owens.

7 But thank you very much. Thank you for 8 your service to the City and to the State
9 and thank you for your time.

10 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Lindsey, I
11 think W.C. has his --

12 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: No, no. I'm 13 sorry.

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: So now we are at 15 public comment. And the first card I have 16 is Mr. Scott, Stanley Scott.

17 You can sit right there. Name and 18 address, please.

19 MR. SCOTT: Yes. Okay, okay. Stanley
20 Scott, I'm with the African American 21 Economic Recovery Think Tank.

22 This will be my third Charter Revision.
23 And I'm appalled that you have a segment of 24 this community wanting to be in leadership
25 but not concerned about the whole city. I'm

1 hearing -- I just heard that everything
2 seemed to be A-okay for a segment of our 3 community. And I'm a little appalled by 4 that.

5 We got people dropping dead from 6 opioids. We got people getting killed. We 7 got rape going on in this city. You got all 8 kind of folly going on in this city. For 9 someone to sit here and act like everything
10 is A-okay, yes, from his viewpoint.

11 But, you know, they say in your last 12 days there's going to be -- a lot of people 13 are going to be burning before they hit 14 hell. I'm appalled by this.

15 I get disappointed in these meetings
16 here, because Jacksonville has plenty of 17 potential, but it lacks leadership. I see 18 it all over this city. I'm all over this 19 city. Like I said, I'm going to knock it to 20 you all the way to the urban core, to the 21 worst part of this city. And for someone to 22 sit here in leadership and he's not reaching 23 out to the people, the least among us, is 24 evil, pure evil.

25 Now, the amount of money -- you have a

1 City Council at the present time advocating 2 for $400,000 for the Chamber, for their 3 little slush fund, for them to have a good
4 time. That's appalling.

5 When the African Americans need
6 something on the dollar side over here, I
7 mean, it just goes out the window.

8 Now, you already know you're evil
9 because of your -- and I'm not talking about 10 y'all in particular. I don't want anybody
11 to jump up. I'm not talking about -- I'm 12 talking about the history, because I know
13 the history. I've been in this city 65
14 years. My family has been active in this 15 city. I have been in civil rights in this 16 city and in this nation for 40 years. I 17 have put on numerous informations.

18 Now, Gentry, when he was in the school
19 board, I was right there with him --

20 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Address your 21 comments to the Commission as a whole, 22 please.

23 MR. SCOTT: No, no. Well, we'll talk
24 about that later, because I have a right by 25 law to speak my voice. Now, I'm getting

1 sick of that too, because you haven't seen
2 probably City Hall -- or City Council.
3 People can't say what's on their mind
4 because it's a courtesy. That's not law.
5 I'm talking about law.

6 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Thank you.

7 MR. SCOTT: Thank you.

8 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Next card we have is 9 Mr. Nooney. Name and address, please.

10 MR. NOONEY: Hello. John Nooney, 8356
11 Bascom Road, Jacksonville, Florida 32216.
12 And thank you for the opportunity to speak.

13 And, you know, a couple things, you
14 know, I'm still just so concerned, you know, 15 about -- you know, with the ethics and 16 Sunshine. And I just feel the public trust 17 has just been crushed. I've got really a 18 lot of different examples.

19 What I really just want to touch on, you 20 know, with Mr. Weinstein, my big thing is 21 always with the waterways. And when I think 22 of the old JEDC and I think of the 23 shipyards, you know, that was 24 36-and-a-half-million dollars of taxpayer
25 money gone. Sixteen acres of public space,

1 it was reduced to eight acres when we 2 brought in Landmar (ph).

3 So now with this new DIA, you know, 4 which was created with 2014-560, that's the 5 legislation that created this Downtown
6 Investment Authority, 4.8 miles is the 7 river's edge zone from the Fuller Warren to 8 the Matthew's Bridge.

9 Now, CRAs, community redevelopment 10 areas, you know, that was created with the 11 legislature back in 1969. So you, I
12 believe, with the Charter have the ability
13 to amend the Charter so that any money 14 within these CRAs or DIAs that touch the 15 waterways of the St. Johns River in this 16 Consolidated City of Jacksonville should 17 allow for public access.

18 Nice to say that we're getting all this 19 public access, economic opportunities. No, 20 we're getting crushed. And, anyway, I just 21 want this to be part of the permanent 22 record.

23 Also, here is that letter from Zahn.
24 You know, I'm just surprised that none of 25 you got this. I did respond to the CR --

1 you know, the email address, you know, to 2 participate. Have you seen my 3 recommendations that I've asked for? I hope 4 you've gotten it; because if you haven't,
5 that's wrong. For you all not even to have 6 been aware of this, that is wrong.

7 I mean, here is your guest list. And -- 8 well, I thought I brought it.

9 But, anyway, you know, this is part of 10 the permanent record. And here, I just want 11 to share it with you, this is Shad Creek,
12 this is the last Waterways Commission
13 meeting. And also too with the Environment
14 Protection Board -- you know, I just had it.
15 I only know I have three minutes, but this 16 is part of the permanent record so you 17 should be able to analyze it, read it at 18 your convenience and digest it.

19 But when it comes to the waterways,
20 we're getting crushed. And here is an 21 example of -- if you ask me, it's a real 22 concern of Sunshine. And thank goodness you 23 have this court stenographer here, because,
24 like I said, I participated in this ten 25 years ago. And so now I filled out three

1 speaker cards. If you look at what I said,
2 you know, ten years ago, and that's what's 3 beautiful about it, because we put ethics
4 back in ten years ago. And then since that 5 ten years we've just eliminated it. So --

6 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Thank you.

7 MR. NOONEY: -- you can review that.

8 All right. Well, thank you for 9 listening.

10 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Thank you very much.

11 All right. Now we're on Commission
12 discussion. And one of the things that I 13 wanted to bring up here for us is I've 14 clearly underestimated the amount of time 15 that we're going to need for various 16 speakers. And if September 13th stays as 17 currently scheduled, we will be here until 18 dinner.

19 So I'm going to reach out and see who we 20 can reschedule around. And I want to ask 21 them what their plans are and get a little 22 more ahead on this, because last thing I 23 want is for someone to come down here, sit 24 from 9:00 until 12:00 and we never get to 25 them and we have to bring them back.

1 So I'll commit to you guys that I'm 2 going to go back through and contact
3 everyone here with the help of Carol Owens
4 and get those rearranged.

5 I'm trying to think if there is anything
6 else as far as housekeeping-wise. You know, 7 keep some ideas, keep some speaker ideas,
8 and through there we have the meetings set
9 up through October.

10 Ms. Lisska.

11 COMMISSIONER LISSKA: Well, I guess this 12 falls under housekeeping, I think so. Mike 13 Hogan's inability to appear today or 14 decision not to appear -- I think it was a 15 decision in the end, because I found 16 something in the notes later on -- that 17 wasn't mentioned; or if you did, I didn't 18 hear it.

19 So I noticed finally a note that said
20 that he preferred to respond by email to any 21 inquiries we might have. So first of all,
22 I'm, again, surprised by that.

23 Second of all, if that is the way you
24 suggest we do it and we don't ask again -- 25 and I might suggest we ask again -- would we

1 send the email to Mr. Hogan and to everyone
2 on this Commission if that is how we're 3 going to do it? I might suggest we all go 4 home and send him some emails, and he my 5 change his mind.

6 But I would -- I was very surprised.
7 That's an important area. It's been brought 8 up independent, the area of Supervisor of 9 Elections, of Mr. Hogan. And so I would 10 certainly love to hear from him.

11 And mine is along the lines of some of 12 the time frames for elections, special 13 elections and other elections as outlined in 14 the Charter. And I think that's an 15 important area of discovery for us.

16 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I would agree with 17 that. And what I would say is for those 18 that have said -- originally, he was set to 19 be here, and then we got the notification 20 that he wasn't. You know, came right at the 21 last minute on that.

22 If you have questions, I would say send 23 them to Carol Owens and then when I -- I'll 24 reach out to him through email and just go 25 down there and say, hey, we would like to

1 talk to you about these issues, would you
2 please come and be prepared to answer these 3 questions.

4 Because that may be the thing, you know,
5 people go, I don't have anything to talk 6 about, what do you want to know, send me the 7 questions and I'll study up on it. So I 8 would say that might be the suggestion, to 9 do that.

10 Mr. Schellenberg.

11 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I guess, as 12 a former elected official, I'm pretty sure
13 that I never asked a constituent to send me
14 a question and I'll respond to them. I 15 think that's just rude, quite frankly, of 16 elected officials or people representing 17 independent authorities that don't come here
18 and willing to talk to us. Because it's not 19 the question, it's what a question might 20 inspire somebody else to ask a question that 21 are inquiring that is important for the CRC
22 to deal with. I just find this -- I wish I 23 could think of another word that's going to 24 be on other than appalling.

25 He's an elected official. If he doesn't

1 know his business, he shouldn't be there.
2 And he should know what's going on. He's in 3 his fifth year and he's been an elected 4 official for quite some time. So he's got 5 institutional knowledge that is important
6 for us to know.

7 And, as I said, asking questions and 8 getting a response might inspire other
9 questions. And that's why we want them
10 here.

11 We don't want to ask Aaron Zahn
12 questions via email. If he has a problem
13 with what's going on, then he can say, I 14 will not answer that because that's 15 something to do with selling or doing 16 something with JEA. But everything else is 17 fair game.

18 So I don't know what power we have and 19 we really don't, but it should be in the 20 record that these people have decided, as 21 the CRC, the importance of it, they 22 basically don't think it's that important.
23 And I think we should put it on the record
24 that they declined and are unwilling to come 25 and speak their mind, because, apparently,

1 they don't know what they're doing.

2 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Well, it's certainly 3 on the record, that's for sure. And it is 4 disappointing when we have planned to have 5 certain speakers here and then they, for 6 whatever reason, choose not to. I can 7 certainly understand the Sheriff since we 8 just came out of a situation with the 9 hurricane. But for others it is 10 disappointing. And I will commit to you to 11 go back to them and ask them to reconsider 12 their decision.

13 Yes, Ms. Jameson.

14 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Thank you. So
15 clarifying question -- a couple clarifying
16 questions and maybe a statement as well. So 17 should we be sending questions right now or 18 should we wait for the Chair to re-invite 19 them and see if that maybe sparks interest?

20 And then also another statement: I'd 21 certainly agree that we would like to see
22 these people in front of this group. So I
23 definitely agree with those sentiments. I
24 think everyone around the table would like 25 to have them here. You know, keeping it

1 within the parameters of the Charter, as 2 well as we do have a list of some suggested
3 topics. So, again, I think that would be a 4 great area of focus for them. Again, as you
5 said, as you're looking at different timing
6 so it doesn't go on for three hours for one 7 speaker, to again kind of keeping it within 8 those parameters.

9 But I don't want to go ahead and send 10 them a bunch of questions and then now we 11 forego our opportunity to have them here.
12 So I'm not quite sure which one should come 13 first.

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: What I would ask is 15 that if you know of some specific questions, 16 topics that you want to address, that might 17 help me in persuading them that, look, we 18 have folks that really want to know about 19 this or that topic, and we really would 20 appreciate it if you could come here and 21 address it, because, otherwise, it looks 22 like, as Mr. Schellenberg said, you, either, 23 A, don't know the answer; or, B, you just 24 don't want to talk about it.

25 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Right.

1 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And I don't 2 believe -- I don't want to believe that any 3 of our elected officials would take that 4 attitude towards our position and towards 5 the work of this Commission. So I want to 6 reach out to them, those who have declined, 7 with a more specific ask for their 8 appearance here.

9 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Thank you. I
10 appreciate that.

11 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Mr. Gentry.

12 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Yes, sir. I do
13 note, for example, with Ronnie Fussell, he 14 says, Clerk of the Court, no issues. I 15 think, hopefully, part of the problem is 16 misunderstanding of why we're asking them to 17 come here. I think Mr. Fussell's point was, 18 I don't have anything that I want you guys 19 to change. But --

20 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And that was really 21 the -- the nature of the letter was, do you 22 have anything that you want us to address.

23 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: But at this stage 24 we're now saying, please come and meet with 25 us so we can talk to you. And I find it

1 incredible that a local constitutional 2 officer of the consolidated government would 3 decline to come before the Charter Revision
4 Commission if we request them. And I think 5 the remedy, the first remedy, if they 6 persist, is to go to the President of the 7 City Council, who does have control of their 8 budget. That's just not acceptable for a 9 local constitutional officer that we ask to 10 come before us. I understand the first 11 reaction, which is appropriate.

12 But with Mr. Hogan, we clearly have some 13 questions for him. In fact, one of the 14 issues now pending is a new way of doing
15 elections. You know, pretty --

16 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: We've had several 17 issues pop up related to elections that I
18 think would be good to hear from him. And I
19 want to go back -- like I said, I want to go
20 back to all of these and say: Look, here 21 are the things that are coming up, we would 22 like for you to come and talk to us about 23 these specific issues. You may not have 24 anything. Everything is maybe fine with 25 you. But we have some questions on these

1 specific topics. So that they can be 2 prepared to address the topics as well. So 3 I will commit to you to do that.

4 Ms. Mills.

5 COMMISSIONER MILLS: Through the Chair,
6 I would just like to say, if we start making 7 concessions on sending questions via email
8 and then, for instance, of any of our other 9 speakers would want to come and they see 10 we're making these concessions with emails, 11 then that might be the norm with some other 12 people who we would like to see in person.

13 I myself, I wouldn't want to email you 14 because I may have another question that 15 comes after your email. Then I'm inundating 16 you with emails, and that could get 17 aggravating.

18 But I agree with everybody else, if you 19 can't come and meet with us to discuss 20 questions that we may have. To spoon-feed
21 them, you shouldn't have to get spoon-fed 22 about your job. If you know your job and 23 follow the law, there is no reason for us to 24 spoon-feed you. Because there are going to 25 be different questions, I guarantee you,

1 there are going to be different questions.

2 What -- I don't understand what the big 3 issue is about not -- we're not concerned 4 whether you have any issues. We're 5 concerned about the City of Jacksonville.
6 That's why I went back to my first comment
7 when I said the independent entities or any 8 local official, you need to understand your 9 role within the City, and we don't 10 understand that. That's the problem in 11 Jacksonville. We don't. We don't 12 understand that we are here for the citizens
13 of Jacksonville, not your personal agenda.

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: No, I get that. And 15 my request and I believe -- and I don't know 16 this to be true, but I believe it's the main 17 point of the request of some of these 18 officials is to be prepared to answer the 19 questions that we may have on some of those 20 topics. So that's how I viewed it, is that 21 I want to be able to answer your questions 22 so I have a general idea of what you want to 23 cover.

24 It was very similar to my conversations
25 of meeting with Lori Boyer. She said, well,

1 what is it that you want me to come talk
2 about, what are the areas that are coming up
3 that you want to have addressed. So I don't 4 think that's unfair, but I get your point.

5 Mr. Schellenberg.

6 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I'll follow
7 that because --

8 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I didn't see.

9 Ms. Santiago.

10 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: Thank you. Just 11 looking over the list, my question is I see 12 that the community foundation, you've asked
13 Nina Waters to come make a recommendation.
14 I wondered, and this is really up for group 15 discussion, whether or not we should also 16 have a representative from the Nonprofit 17 Center, maybe Rena Coughlin come in and just 18 talk to us about what they're doing and how 19 what we do through the Charter affects their 20 effectiveness in the community as nonprofit
21 agencies as well.

22 And my second question -- or my second
23 recommendation, I know we're not on this, I 24 don't think we're there yet, but was kind of 25 in regards to public comment. There is a

1 lot of people that really can't be here
2 right now. I know that we're streaming
3 live. I listened last time when I couldn't 4 be here myself. However, if I did have a 5 comment or I had a question that I wanted to 6 present and I wasn't here, do we have a 7 mechanism to do that?

8 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: We have the 9 CRC@COJ.net email.

10 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: So it's an 11 email?

12 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yes.

13 COMMISSIONER SANTIAGO: Okay. But not 14 like a live chat or a way for them to raise 15 their hand and submit their questions while 16 we're here in session?

17 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: We do not have that.
18 W.C.

19 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: I keep forgetting
20 to put it down.

21 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I thought I had seen
22 it up.

23 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Other people
24 that might be interested, because we 25 actually own it, is Leon Haley.

1 I know he's your boss, but I'd rather 2 invite you, you're fairly new.

3 The City owns that hospital. And we are 4 committing, I think, $10 million for the 5 next three years or something, I can't 6 remember the actual number now. But he 7 might be a valuable resource about how 8 they're meeting that community's needs there 9 and how the City, since we own them, how 10 we're going to be engaged.

11 I like the idea of Rena Coughlin, but 12 Peter Racine with the Jacksonville Jaguars,
13 they have a big footprint. I don't think 14 they're doing as much as they should. That 15 is just a comment, but as much as the 16 Weavers, Weavers are outstanding. But maybe 17 Peter Racine with the Jacksonville Jaguar 18 Foundation might be also helpful because 19 they're out in the community also dealing 20 with a lot of the nonprofits, dealing with 21 young children, because I've been on the -- 22 for 25 years.

23 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Let me ask the 24 question: How do we see the nonprofit
25 community integrating in with the Charter?

1 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I think this 2 goes back to what Michael said, is bringing 3 all these people together and seeing -- 4 they're not -- first of all, I don't -- my 5 impression is a lot of the nonprofits aren't 6 working together, okay. They all have their 7 little niche here. And they -- a lot of 8 small ones and some big ones. There
9 probably should be more consolidation going 10 forward. And I think Nina Waters would be 11 helpful in that regard.

12 I think Rena will be helpful in regards
13 that we have a lot of different nonprofits 14 in a lot of different areas, that they 15 should be more looking together.

16 I go back to what Mr. Weinstein -- we 17 need to bring more people together so they 18 don't overlap; and where they are 19 overlapping, be more specific about what 20 you're taking care of going forward.

21 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And I completely
22 understand that.

23 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I think
24 Peter Racine would be very helpful in that, 25 because they touch Northeast Florida, but

1 they deal with, I think, 50 to 100
2 nonprofits every year that they give money 3 to.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: But my question is,
5 because we do have a limited amount of time 6 here for us to determine our priorities and 7 then break into these working groups, is 8 where do you see the nonprofit community
9 touching into the Charter. That's --
10 Mr. Griggs.

11 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: So since the 12 nonprofits are sort of in the discussion, 13 one of the things that we've heard over and 14 over again, we've tried to get -- had the 15 conversations with folks about how we can 16 address urban core issues. And one of those 17 organizations in addressing those issues is 18 LISC. And they can talk about how 19 investments in communities changes that.

20 Now, my argument with some of the people 21 who have been sitting in that chair has 22 been, is that a priority enough for the City
23 to address it in a certain way, is it high 24 enough a priority. And I think that someone 25 from maybe perhaps LISC can help us address

1 those issues.

2 Also, as Mr. Schellenberg mentioned, UF
3 Health. We can also probably stand to hear
4 from the director of the county health
5 department on how public health addresses 6 all the issues wholistically around the 7 community, Dr. Rolle. And I intended to ask
8 her, but I haven't yet. So I'll make sure I
9 put that on my list.

10 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And that's one of 11 the things, so if you have people that you 12 want to have come here and speak, so that we 13 don't have to chase down contact
14 information, if you can get that contact
15 information, send it to Carol Owens, email, 16 telephone, so that we can get a letter to 17 them requesting their presence to address
18 this group as we determine our priorities.

19 Any other?

20 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: Mr. Chairman.

21 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay. It blends
22 right in to your little Tervis cup there.

23 COMMISSIONER JAMESON: I'm on my own
24 little island over here.

25 Thank you. I just have a question for

1 you about how we envision this moving
2 forward. This is a lot of people that we do
3 intend to come speak to this group. We've 4 now added a couple more today, it seems 5 like. Hopefully, we'll have a couple others
6 that do show up.

7 But as we're looking forward -- and,
8 again, we need to form these subcommittees,
9 committees, whatever we're deciding to call 10 them. Is the intention to have additional 11 guest speakers through the larger group
12 through the end of October and then break
13 out into those committees starting 14 November 1st?

15 So, again, looking at that, that's still 16 a limited amount of meetings. Again, 17 understanding we had one guest today, and 18 that took up pretty much the entire time.

19 So how do we envision making sure that 20 everyone is heard with all the priorities
21 that we have and speakers we'd like to come 22 in, but, again, understanding that by 23 November we really need to get started on 24 those individual topics? So how do we 25 balance that, and, again, so that we're not

1 here through dinnertime every day?

2 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Again, no. And the 3 short answer to that is my goal initially 4 was for us to have our priorities determined 5 by the end of September. Clearly, we've got 6 so many people that we're all wanting to 7 hear from because I haven't heard much 8 pushback on any of the names that have been 9 brought up.

10 So in order to hear the folks that we 11 want to hear from and get our priorities
12 down so that we can do the committee work 13 with sufficient time, we have a couple of 14 options: We can meet more often, or we can 15 meet longer, or we can pare down the list of 16 people that we have coming here to speak.

17 COMMISSIONER GRIGGS: Mr. Chair, I think 18 that today's presentation was long because 19 he was the only person here. And if we had 20 multiple speakers, under your leadership, I 21 think we could probably get through those 22 speakers giving them an opportunity to make 23 a statement, right, and then we have a few 24 questions and keep it moving.

25 But I think, you know, Mr. Weinstein was

1 a victim of our circumstance today, that he 2 was the only speaker available to us so we 3 took advantage of it.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Much like we had 5 with Mr. Holland as well.

6 Okay. Here is what I don't want to -- 7 here is what I don't want to have, I don't 8 want to have folks looking at this and 9 saying that I'm driving who we come here and 10 speak. I'll make the decisions if I need to 11 if we can't reach a consensus on it.

12 But do we realistically believe we can 13 get through five speakers that we have for 14 the 13th?

15 COMMISSIONER BAKER: No, not those 16 speakers.

17 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: No, I don't see that 18 as happening. I will get with Ms. Moran and 19 see if she can move.

20 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Do we need two 21 Duval --

22 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Beg your pardon?

23 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Two Duval
24 Delegation?

25 COMMISSIONER BAKER: Three.

1 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: They're all part of 2 the Duval Delegation.

3 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: I would just 4 get the chair. I would just get the chair,
5 honestly. I can appreciate all of them 6 wanting to speak, but the chair is 7 representing the core.

8 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay.

9 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: And I'm 10 sorry, Mr. Brock, Chair, if it comes that we 11 don't get the answers we really want, then 12 we can ask them to come back at a later 13 date.

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay.

15 COMMISSIONER SCHELLENBERG: Let's
16 focus at the chair.

17 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Yeah. Well, I do
18 know that Mr. Fischer had some ideas that he 19 wanted to share with us, because he had 20 spoke to me. Now, I tried explaining with 21 him, as well, with the proposed legislation 22 and everything going on with that, there is 23 a part of me that just says, I don't want
24 for us to even touch School Board issues,
25 but I understand how all that's playing out.

1 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Mr. Chairman, on 2 the -- and I think Fischer is the Chairman
3 of the Duval Delegation.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: He is.

5 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: On the issue that 6 Mr. Fischer's raised and the resolution that 7 he's proposed that he was going to talk to 8 us about, I guess, in part --

9 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: He has others.

10 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: And other things
11 too. I said "in part." Certainly, he has 12 lots of ideas.

13 The resolution that -- to address to the 14 School Board was apparently crafted by the 15 Office of General Counsel based on the 16 appearance of the resolution. Could we at 17 the same time, when we have this 18 presentation or have the OGC prepared to 19 advise -- I would like to hear their opinion
20 regarding how Mr. Fischer can have a J Bill
21 that trumps Article Nine of the Florida
22 Constitution that establishes the school
23 board and then it's elected at a partial 24 election. So I think it would be very 25 important in terms of the Charter vis-à-vis

1 the Constitution of the State of Florida to 2 understand -- I would like to understand how 3 you do that, quite candidly.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: And we can revisit
5 that. I will tell you that ten years ago
6 when asked about it, the OGC did not provide 7 a definitive opinion, only pointed out that 8 it was likely that the recommendation for 9 the appointed school board that came out of 10 the Charter Revision Commission previously 11 would likely result in litigation over that 12 very issue.

13 And I would encourage you to look at the 14 transcript in there of that meeting, because 15 they came in there, Steve Rohan, I believe 16 it was, Ms. Johnston.

17 MS. JOHNSTON: Yes, it was.

18 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Who came and spoke 19 to the Charter Revision Commission at that 20 time, which is in part why I am reluctant to 21 go back into these issues, because in my 22 view, not speaking as the Chair, but just in 23 my personal view, these issues are now being 24 debated in the -- by the policymakers. And 25 for us to go in and propose changes one way

1 or the other while there is legislation
2 that's currently being debated and looked 3 upon is not where we can have the most 4 impact.

5 I realize that it is a passionate issue
6 that we all have strong views upon, and it 7 is a worthy discussion to have, just not 8 here, because of everything that's going on.

9 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: May I respond to 10 that?

11 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Certainly.

12 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Forgetting the 13 School Board issue, scattered throughout the 14 Charter there are provisions like the 15 courts. It says court is a part of the 16 consolidated government. And it says that 17 all general and special laws shall apply, 18 except that its expressly provided herein.

19 So the Charter purports to trump Florida
20 general and special law. And presumably the 21 Constitution of the State of Florida, which 22 would mean that the Charter, the people
23 here, could just choose to have a whole 24 different court system than we have anywhere
25 else in the state. That's pretty important

1 to know if that's really what this Charter
2 means. And is that what we want? Do we 3 want to be -- succeed from the State of 4 Florida, effectively, and have our right to 5 have our own stuff and not be bound?

6 And that's why I raised this with OGC.
7 Any of these issues will bring up
8 litigation. I think it's important for us
9 to know is it the opinion of our General 10 Counsel, who binds all of us, that the 11 Charter of Duval County can, in fact, be 12 amended or we can have a J Bill that will 13 trump the Constitution. That's the issue 14 that I see Jason Fischer's point raising is, 15 is that so.

16 And if the Office of General Counsel
17 believes it's so, recognizing we'd invite 18 litigation, that's fine, but it's important 19 to know. And I think it's important for the 20 Charter Revision Commission to consider do
21 we want to be in the position in Duval
22 County to take the position that we can do 23 anything we want to do here, including in 24 violation of the State Constitution and 25 state laws under the Charter.

1 And if that's not the case, then we -- 2 it needs to be cleaned up. I mean, it's a 3 big, big issue.

4 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I agree. It all 5 goes back to the 1934 amendment of the 6 Florida Constitution and the breadth of home 7 rule authority that we were given back at 8 that time. And so you're asking for just a 9 general to get the input from OGC?

10 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: OGC at the time --

11 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: The primacy of the 12 Charter vis-à-vis the Constitution.

13 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Right.

14 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: Okay.

15 COMMISSIONER GENTRY: Please. Now and 16 forever, apparently, we can amend the 17 Charter and effectively amend -- change
18 everything again.

19 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: I will go revisit
20 back with them and a lot of the previous 21 opinion or lack of an opinion, statement of 22 the law without it being a binding legal 23 opinion.

24 Okay. Anyone?

25 VICE CHAIRPERSON KNIGHT: So just to be

1 clear, for next week are we pursuing just 2 one representative of the Duval Delegation?

3 CHAIRPERSON BROCK: What I'm going to do
4 is ask if Ms. Daniels and Mr. Yarborough 5 would be willing to wait and present their 6 ideas to the Chair, to Mr. Fischer. I
7 believe if we have Mr. Fischer, Ms. Hershey
8 and Ms. Moran, we just might get through it 9 in light of Mr. Griggs' statement of, out of 10 respect we have for each other and for the 11 speakers, and his, apparently, high
12 estimation of my leadership abilities.

13 I'm reminded of what my grandmother used 14 to say to me was, I'd like to buy you for 15 what you're worth and sell you for what you 16 think you're worth.

17 With that, thank you all. We're 18 adjourned.
