COUNCILMAN RORY DIAMOND TO HOLD A SIGNING CEREMONY FOR THE FIRE WATCH

JACKSONVILLE, FL, Nov. 6, 2019 – Councilman Diamond, joined by Mayor Curry, Representatives from the Northeast Florida Commissions and representatives from various veterans’ organizations, will host a signing ceremony for The Fire Watch. The Fire Watch is a coordinated effort between the City of Jacksonville and the counties of Baker, Clay, Nassau and St. John’s to end veteran suicide in our region. The City of Jacksonville will serve as the legal home of The Fire Watch and coordinate with the surrounding counties via inter-local agreements. Through a series of partnerships and collaborations between local, state, and federal agencies, private donors, media entities, and regional and national non-profits, The Fire Watch will coordinate an effort to organize existing resources to combat the veteran suicide epidemic locally.

WHEN: Wednesday, Nov. 6
10 AM

WHERE: City Hall at St. James
Atrium
117 W. Duval S. – 32202

WHO: Councilman Rory Diamond, City of Jacksonville
Mayor Lenny Curry, City of Jacksonville
Commissioner Jerimiah Blocker, St. John’s County
Commissioner Justin Taylor, Nassau County
Commissioner Jimmy Anderson, Baker County
Commissioner Gavin Rollins, Clay County
