In attendance: Council Vice President Ron Salem, Council President Terrance Freeman, Council Member Randy White, Council Member Tyrona Clark-Murray, Council Member Howland, Council Member-elect Joe Carlucci, Council Member-elect Will Lahnen, Council Member-elect Ken Amaro, Kim Taylor (Council Auditor's Office), Phillip Peterson (Council Auditor's Office), Mary Staffopoulos (Office of General Counsel), Randy Wyse, Nikki Evans

For a complete list of attendees, please refer to the sign-in sheet.

Meeting Convened: 12:00 PM

Council Vice President Ron Salem called the meeting to order and asked the attendees to introduce themselves for the record. CVP Salem said that the purpose of this meeting is to discuss Council Leadership for the 2023-2024 Council year.

CVP Salem addressed the three Council Members-elect. He would like to setup a meeting with each new Council Member to discuss their interests and goals in order to place them in the committees they would serve best. The upcoming year will be unique in that 9-10 new council Members will be joining the Council, as well as a new Mayor.

CM-elect Amaro stated that his priorities are the Rules Committee, Land Use and Zoning Committee, and the Neighborhoods, Community Services and Public Health and Safety Committee.

CM-elect Carlucci stated that he would like to hear what CVP Salem's priorities will be for the upcoming year. CVP Salem said he plans to continue supporting public safety through police and fire and access to healthcare.

CM-elect Carlucci said he would love to serve on the Neighborhoods Committee because he has an interest in parks, and is also interested in serving on the Transportation, Energy and Utilities Committee.

CM-elect Lahnen stated that his first choice would be Finance Committee, followed by NCSPHS and TEU.

CM Clark-Murray said she will be pledging her support for CVP Salem and stated her desire to continue serving on the NCSPHS Committee, and TEU.
